8 (The following occurred in the absence of the 9 prospective jury panel.)

10 (Defendants present.)

11 THE CLERK: Criminal cause for jury selection, 12 docket number 10 CR 268, United States versus Shaun Taylor and 13 Timothy Pinkney.

14 Please state your appearances.

15 MR. AMATRUDA: Matthew Amatruda for the United
16 States, with Special Agent Thomas McNally from the FBI.

17 THE COURT: Good morning to both of you.

18 MR. RINALDO: Paul Rinaldo and Carl Herman for 19 Mr. Taylor.

20 Good morning, Judge.

21 THE COURT: Good morning. To the three of you, good
22 morning.

23 MR. RUSSELL: Royce Russell, Richard Jasper,
24 representing Mr. Pinkney.

25 MR. JASPER: Good morning.

1 THE COURT: Good morning to all three of you.

2 We are missing Ms. Farhadian who had to deal with
3 something this morning. The parties have agreed to go ahead
4 and move forward.

5 Once the prospective jurors come up, I will of 6 course again have the parties introduce themselves, as we did
7 yesterday. I will let them know that Ms. Farhadian will be
8 here.

9 Just so that there is no undue attention, I will
10 tell them that the lawyers may from time to time have to leave
11 the courtroom for reasons that don't concern them and they 12 shouldn't really pay attention to that.

13 Okay?

14 These are the 38 that were precleared, although 15 after my review last night it is astonishing to me that a lot
16 more of these people were not actually brought up for cause or 17 for follow-up, given what I found.

18 (Ms. Farhadian enters courtroom.)

19 THE COURT: Parties, we have an update from the jury
20 clerk.

21 Juror number 57 -- these are all relate to the ones
22 who were coming up now, or supposed to be coming up now.

23 Juror 57 thought she had to be here at 1:00 o'clock. Jurors
24 204 and 247 are not here. We don't know why. Numerous
25 messages were left for those two and there have been no

1 responses.

2 Just keep track --

3 MR. AMATRUDA: That's 57? 204?

4 THE COURT: 57, 204 and 247.

5 MR. AMATRUDA: Okay. Thank you.

6 THE COURT: Just so that you are aware, number 57
7 has issues anyway.

8 We are going to seat them in the same way as we did
9 yesterday, except we are going to put them all over --

10 (Prospective jury panel enters.)

11 THE COURT: As you come in, start filling in the 12 last row at the end. Walk all the way to the end. You can 13 sit.

14 Please fill every available seat. You are not going
15 to be there very long. Move all the way down. You can fit
16 one more person in there, maybe two.

17 No. Please have them start sitting in the last row
18 on the other side. From the first row, start sitting in the 19 back, please, all the way to the end. That second row,
20 please. On that second row, they can move down. Move down,
21 please.

22 Can you sit on this side, please, if you don't mind,
23 ladies?

24 Thank you.

25 You are not going to be there very long.

1 Ladies and gentlemen, good morning.

2 You've all been brought here to follow-up on the
3 questionnaires that you filled out maybe a week or two-week
4 ago. I guess it has been about a couple of weeks ago.

5 This is the case of United States versus Shaun
6 Taylor and Timothy Pinkney. I know the last time you were 7 here the parties introduced themselves to you. I am going to 8 ask them to introduce themselves again to you.

9 On behalf of the government, please appearances.

10 MR. AMATRUDA: Matthew Amatruda and Tali Farhadian
11 along with Special Agent Thomas McNally from the Federal 12 Bureau of Investigation.

13 Good morning.

14 THE COURT: Thank you.

15 On behalf of Mr. Taylor?

16 MR. RINALDO: Paul Rinaldo and Carl Herman
17 representing Mr. Taylor.

18 THE COURT: Thank you.

19 Mr. Taylor, would you mind standing up?

20 Thank you.

21 Good morning.

22 And on behalf of Mr. Pinkney?

23 MR. RUSSELL: Royce Russell and Richard Jasper on 24 behalf of Mr. Timothy Pinkney.

25 MR. JASPER: Good morning.

1 MR. RUSSELL: Good morning.

2 THE COURT: Thank you very much.

3 As a reminder again, my name is Dora Irizarry. I am
4 the judge who is going to be presiding over this matter.

5 To my right is one of my clerks, Jennifer Klein, and 6 you have met Mr. Temidayo Aganga-Williams, who is sitting in 7 the back. He's another one of my law clerks who will be 8 assisting as well.

9 Remember that we are only going to address you by 10 the number that was assigned to the questionnaire that you
11 filled out. So we are going to be calling you to come in and 12 start filling the seats here in the jury box and then as we go
13 along we will start filling up the spaces in the well. This 14 inner part of the courtroom is called the well of the 15 courtroom. That's the jury box over to my left. Then we are 16 going to proceed to follow-up with some of the responses that 17 you gave on the questionnaires.

18 Please listen to your number and step up as you are 19 being called.

20 THE LAW CLERK: We are going to fill the front row
21 from this seat and then fill in this direction and then the 22 following rows. We will start with juror number one.

23 Then number 6, number 13, 18, 21, 33. That's the 24 first row.

25 Then starting in the first seat in the second row:

1 46, 53, 54, 61 -- number 57 is not here, correct?

2 THE COURT: Correct.

3 THE LAW CLERK: Okay. 77 and 85.

4 THE COURT: Can we just skip that seat for 57?

5 THE LAW CLERK: You want to leave it empty?

6 THE COURT: So we can have the chart.

7 THE LAW CLERK: Number 85, please start in the first
8 seat in the next row.

9 THE COURT: Then can I have -- just move down one
10 seat, thank you.

11 THE LAW CLERK: Okay. Next will be 94, 101, 107.

12 Please take the second seat in the third row. If it
13 is easier, there is a door on this side as well.

14 I'm sorry. You are 94? Could take the seat --

15 THE COURT: You have to move all the way down.

16 There you go. You are going to be in number order.

17 THE LAW CLERK: And then 119, please, and 121.

18 Then starting in the back corner seat, again, you
19 will come around this way if it is easier, 139, 144, 156, 158,
20 165, 176.

21 Now we are going to call three people to sit in the 22 front row here: 177, 178 and 179.

23 Then on this side, 180.

24 THE COURT: Can I just have you all move over just a
25 little bit. I can't see the face of number 177.

1 THE LAW CLERK: And 223.

2 Judge, do you want to leave a space between them?

3 THE COURT: Yes.

4 THE LAW CLERK: Okay. And then you guys might have 5 to reshuffle a little.

6 225 on the end and 240, 246. Leave a space. And
7 then 251 and 252. If you can just move a bit.

8 Thank you.

9 Actually, we are going to -- you will be over here.
10 She is 254 and then we are going to have 262.

11 Thank you.

12 THE COURT: All right. We are going to start with 13 our juror number one.

14 Good morning.

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning.

16 THE COURT: You have been at your current job for 17 about two months now?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Were you working before that?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Where were you working before that?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The same place, but under 23 another company.

24 THE COURT: So you were working for another company.

25 Were you doing the same thing that you are doing

1 now?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

3 THE COURT: How long were you there?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Since August last year.

5 THE COURT: What do you do with respect to passenger
6 service?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Everything; I have to make 8 sure that all the passengers are taken care of before they
9 take a flight. They have to be checked in; all the procedures
10 that have to be followed in order for them to go on board; and 11 make sure that the flight leaves on time.

12 THE COURT: You are one of those important people
13 when we get to the airport. Having flown a little bit the 14 past month, I appreciate the work that people in your position
15 do.

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

17 THE COURT: Thank you.

18 Have you been doing that kind of work consistently?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, for the last 20-plus
20 years.

21 THE COURT: Okay. But for different companies?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Your spouse or significant other
24 you say is in security or public safety?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

1 THE COURT: In what way, for a private company or --

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He works for the School
3 District of Bay Shore.

4 THE COURT: He works for the school safety. Okay.

5 For the attorneys, as to question number 36, you
6 mentioned that the daughter of a friend of yours was killed
7 outside of a nightclub.

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

9 THE COURT: Do you know any details about what
10 happened there, whether anybody was arrested?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. They -- they allegedly 12 person who did it was -- is still in jail now.

13 THE COURT: Okay. How long ago did that happen?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I believe almost four years
15 now.

16 THE COURT: Has the case gone to trial or was he 17 sentenced already, do you know?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't know the details.
19 But I think so. I am not sure.

20 THE COURT: Have you talked to your friend about the 21 way that her daughter's case was handled and her impressions
22 about it?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, not really.

24 THE COURT: Is there anything about that that you
25 think would affect your ability to be fair and impartial in

1 this case?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. No, ma'am.

3 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

4 Juror number six, good morning.

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning.

6 THE COURT: You told us that you have a masters
7 degree. In what area?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: International political 9 economics.

10 THE COURT: International political economics? Oh
11 my gosh, that sounds like a major mouthful, given how global 12 everything is these days.

13 You decided to be a hair stylist maybe because that 14 area is so full of major issues.

15 How long have you been doing that, you said?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hairdresser? Maybe
17 20 years, 18.

18 THE COURT: Do you have your own place?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Is it a big salon? Do you have a lot of 21 chairs in your salon or are you a solo?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Actually, I don't have my 23 own place right now. I've had my own place.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: So --

1 THE COURT: You are aware that this case is expected
2 to go -- we are expecting it until around mid-August sometime.
3 We do take into consideration a lot of things. Remembering,
4 of course, I want to remind everybody, that we are not going
5 to sit on Fridays. It will be a four-day work week for us.
6 We are going to have this Friday, July 4th, off, in this case.

7 Given that and given that you are working for 8 yourself, is this going to be a financial hardship for you?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

10 THE COURT: Okay. You have mentioned that your dad
11 used to work in the courts. Do you know in what capacity?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Assistant DA.

13 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Assistant DA in Nassau.

15 THE COURT: He was an Assistant DA.

16 Do you know in what county?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Nassau.

18 THE COURT: In Nassau County.

19 For all 20 years?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

21 THE COURT: He's retired now or is he practicing
22 now?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He's dead now.

24 THE COURT: I'm sorry:

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: So he is not practicing.

1 THE COURT: I'm sorry for your loss.

2 You did tell -- did you ever talk to him about the
3 work that he did as an Assistant DA?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Very little.

5 THE COURT: Is there anything about the job that 6 your father had that you think might affect your ability to be
7 fair and impartial in this case?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

9 THE COURT: You mentioned -- for the attorneys this 10 is question 35 -- that you have friends and family and some 11 neighbors who have had issues with drugs. The charges here do
12 concern allegations of distribution of crack cocaine, cocaine
13 and heroin.

14 Is there anything about the issues of people that 15 you know, possibly people close to you, with the fact that the 16 defendants are accused of distributing drugs?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

18 THE COURT: Would that affect you in any way?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

20 THE COURT: Thank you.

21 Juror number 18, good morning.

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning.

23 THE COURT: I'm sorry. 14. I skipped.

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 13.

25 THE COURT: 13. I'm sorry.

1 You may have by accident -- I know there were a lot
2 of questions on this questionnaire -- left out an answer to
3 question number 13.

4 What is the highest grade that you completed in
5 school?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Ten classes.

7 THE COURT: I can't hear you. I'm sorry.

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I just finished school.

9 THE COURT: Just finished school?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

11 THE COURT: When?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: In the Ukraine.

13 THE COURT: What is the highest grade that you
14 completed? How far did you go in school, what is the highest 15 grade?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Basic.

17 THE COURT: I'm sorry? You studied in the Ukraine?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

19 THE COURT: I'm sorry. I wasn't able to hear you.

20 Okay. So you studied in the Ukraine. How many 21 years did you go to school in the Ukraine?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Eleven.

23 THE COURT: Eleven. Okay.

24 I'm sorry. I wasn't understanding.

25 You say you are doing interior decorating now?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Is this your own business?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Your spouse or significant other is?
5 Working in the business with you.

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: A hum.

7 THE COURT: Is this the work that you have been
8 doing pretty much all of your life?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Okay. You heard me mention the length
11 of the trial here. Is this something that would affect the 12 running of your business?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

14 THE COURT: Or is your spouse going to be able to 15 handle it?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am self-employed.

17 THE COURT: You are self-employed. What does that 18 mean?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I --

20 THE COURT: I can't hear you. You have to speak a 21 little louder. Can you just repeat that?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am just going to lose my
23 clients.

24 THE COURT: You are going to lose your clients?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

1 THE COURT: If you don't work, you don't get paid?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

4 Now juror number 18.

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning.

6 THE COURT: You mentioned -- and for the attorneys
7 this is question 16 -- that your husband is a retired police
8 officer.

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Did your husband ever talk about the 11 work that he did as a police officer?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

13 THE COURT: How long has he been retired now?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He retired 2006.

15 THE COURT: Do you know whether he ever worked in 16 the area of narcotics?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He worked in the gang unit.

18 THE COURT: He worked --

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: In the gang unit.

20 THE COURT: Is there anything at all about the work
21 that he did as a police officer that you think would affect
22 your ability to be fair and impartial?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: One of the instructions that I am going
25 to be giving to the jury, and this applies to everyone, so

1 it's important that you listen very carefully to the questions
2 that I am asking your fellow jurors because if it relates to
3 you, then we should know about it, and one of the instructions
4 that I am going to give the jury at the end of the case is
5 that the testimony of police officers or any other law
6 enforcement agents is to be treated in the same way as the 7 testimony of any other witness.

8 In other words, you don't give the testimony of a
9 person in law enforcement, whether they are with the NYPD or 10 some other agency, more weight or less weight just because of 11 the position that they hold.

12 Would you be able to follow that instruction?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

14 THE COURT: Thank you.

15 And juror 21, good morning.

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning.

17 THE COURT: I wanted to ask, you were raised in 18 India. How long have you been in the United States?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thirty years.

20 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thirty years.

22 THE COURT: Thirty years?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

24 THE COURT: You have just recently started doing
25 work as a home health aide?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Were you working before that?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

4 THE COURT: What were you doing before that?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was a city worker. I was 6 a case manager.

7 THE COURT: For which department?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: In the city department.

9 THE COURT: I see.

10 In doing that work as a caseworker -- how long did
11 you do that?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Eleven years.

13 THE COURT: You did that for 11 years.

14 In doing this work as a caseworker, did you come in 15 contact with people who had abused drugs?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

17 THE COURT: Okay. You heard me mention that this 18 case does involve allegations of distribution of drugs. Is 19 there anything about the work that you did, and having come in 20 contact with people who went through addiction and the 21 charges, that would affect your ability to be fair and 22 impartial?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

24 THE COURT: I'm sorry for your loss. You mentioned
25 that you are a widow.

1 Did your husband work while he was alive?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

3 THE COURT: What did he do for a living?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He was in Chemical Bank. He
5 was a programmer.

6 THE COURT: He was a programmer.

7 As a home health aide, how do you work for a steady
8 set of people? Do you go to people's homes? Do you have 9 different people that you visit on different days? How does
10 that work?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I do for the Holocaust
12 survivor, the company.

13 THE COURT: You work for a company and they send you
14 to the various clients?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

16 THE COURT: I see.

17 You have been there for two months?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

19 THE COURT: If you sat on this trial, I guess we are 20 looking at approximately six to seven weeks, more or less, how 21 would that -- would that affect your employment in any way?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have to call my supervisor
23 and explain everything that I am here.

24 THE COURT: Okay. You did explain it to your 25 employer?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. Last night, when I got
2 the phone call, I called him and told him that I will come
3 here and if I select then I have to call him again.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Did he say what that would mean
5 for your job?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Will you be getting paid if you
2 are here for that time?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't know, ma'am.

4 THE COURT: You will recall, when I asked everybody
5 to fill out the questionnaires, I asked you to make sure and 6 go back to your employers and find out what your situation was 7 with your job, because we are in the process of selecting
8 people, and once you are selected to serve on this jury, I'm
9 not going to entertain any applications about scheduling
10 problems or hardships other anything of that kind. Okay.
11 Thank you.

12 Juror No. 33, good morning.

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning.

14 THE COURT: You mentioned that you work in 15 electrical designing?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

17 THE COURT: Did I understand that right?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

19 THE COURT: What is that, exactly?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am working for the Long
21 Island Rail Road, and I work with them for the transit system.

22 THE COURT: That's what you meant by "public
23 service." So, you are working for the Long Island Rail Road?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

25 THE COURT: You've been doing this job for about

1 eight months now?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

3 THE COURT: What were you doing before that?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Before, I work in a
5 consulting company.

6 THE COURT: You were in a consulting company?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Doing that same kind of work?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Was this a private company?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

12 THE COURT: And how long were you with them?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Eight years.

14 THE COURT: Eight years?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Thank you.

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You are welcome.

18 THE COURT: And Juror No. 46, good morning.

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning.

20 THE COURT: You told us that you work in
21 construction?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

23 THE COURT: What in particular do you -- I hope I
24 read that right, construction?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

1 THE COURT: And what kind of construction do you
2 work in?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Mains in the street.

4 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Gas mains in the street.

6 THE COURT: Oh. Gas mains in the street.

7 How long have you been doing that?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Eight years.

9 THE COURT: Eight years. Okay. Have you been doing
10 construction --

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I've been with the company
12 for thirteen, that particular job for eight.

13 THE COURT: Okay. I guess construction jobs can 14 sort of vary in many different ways in the way you people are 15 assigned jobs and things like that, as I've learned over the 16 years in talking to fellow prospective jurors. Will your 17 company pay you for jury service?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Am I correct that some construction jobs
20 just pay by the particular job you're working on; right, in 21 terms of some construction?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm a weekly, hourly
23 employee.

24 THE COURT: All right.

25 And you mentioned that your wife or your spouse does

1 not work outside of the home. Did she ever work outside of 2 the home?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

4 THE COURT: What did she do?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Fashion merchandise.

6 THE COURT: Fashion merchandising?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Now, she's got the important job of 9 taking care of the baby?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

11 THE COURT: Just sort of generally -- and this is 12 something, again, it's in that area that applies really to 13 everyone -- there is a possibility that this case could get 14 media attention. It may not. But one of the instructions
15 that I'm going to be giving every time that we break, even now
16 during this process of jury selection, is that the jury cannot 17 pay attention, look at, listen to, read any kind of account
18 that may be given about this case or anyone connected with 19 this case. That includes any of the potential witnesses or 20 the locations that may be mentioned during the course of this
21 case. And you can't do any kind of research or independent
22 investigation concerning this case or any matter connected
23 with this case, and that includes something as simple as what
24 trial procedures are, because I'm going to be giving the jury
25 instructions about trial procedure, about the law and about

1 the evidence and how you will be considering it.

2 Would you be able to follow those instructions?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Thank you.

5 Juror No. 53. Good morning.

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning.

7 THE COURT: You mentioned that you had been in the 8 Army?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Were you ever stationed outside of the 11 United States?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I have.

13 THE COURT: Where were you stationed?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Germany.

15 THE COURT: Did you ever, while you were serving in 16 the Army -- how long did you serve, again?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was there for about three 18 and a half years.

19 THE COURT: About three and a half years?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

21 THE COURT: When you served in the Army, did you
22 ever serve in the capacity of military police?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

24 THE COURT: Did you ever participate in any kind of
25 military tribunal?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

2 THE COURT: You mentioned that you have a brother in
3 the legal field?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

5 THE COURT: Do you know what kind of work your 6 brother does?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He practices -- he's
8 self-employed. He does mainly like landlord/tenant.

9 THE COURT: Is he an attorney?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, he is.

11 THE COURT: Your brother is an attorney. He does 12 like civil cases; right?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

14 THE COURT: Not anything to do with criminal law?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

16 THE COURT: Is there anything at all about the work
17 that your brother does that would affect your ability to be 18 fair and impartial?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

20 THE COURT: You mentioned -- for the attorneys, it's 21 question 25 -- that your son was arrested for not allowing his 22 bag to be searched on the way to school?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

24 THE COURT: How old was he when that happened?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Twenty, twenty-one; about

1 twenty-one.

2 THE COURT: About twenty or twenty-one years old?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

4 THE COURT: I'm going to ask you to keep your voice
5 up a little bit.

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm a little hoarse.

7 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Did he actually get taken in 8 and arrested and processed?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, he was.

10 THE COURT: Was he held overnight?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. The arraignment was 12 the next morning.

13 THE COURT: What happened to the case?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was dismissed.

15 THE COURT: It was dismissed?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

17 THE COURT: How do you feel about the way the whole
18 situation was handled?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't have any particular
20 feelings about it. It was just, you know, like a random
21 search at the subway, and my son is a little stubborn. So, it
22 was just practice.

23 THE COURT: Is there anything about what happened to 24 your son that you think would affect your ability to be fair
25 and impartial?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

2 THE COURT: Juror No. 54.

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning.

4 THE COURT: Good morning. And you were in the Army,
5 and you were in the Army for how long?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was a reserves for four
7 years.

8 THE COURT: As a reservist, did you ever serve in a
9 military police capacity?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

11 THE COURT: Did you ever participate in any military 12 tribunal?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

14 THE COURT: You have a son who was in the Marines?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Always a Marine; right?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Always a Marine.

18 THE COURT: Do you know if he ever served in a
19 military police capacity?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

21 THE COURT: Do you know whether he served in any
22 military tribunal?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

24 THE COURT: Was he assigned outside of the United
25 States?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

2 THE COURT: And did he actually see combat?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

4 THE COURT: And did you?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

6 THE COURT: That would have been during the Vietnam
7 War. You didn't get to see any combat?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

9 THE COURT: Sort of in general, do you have any
10 feelings about the criminal justice system, whether it's fair
11 or it's not fair, any thoughts?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. Basically, fair.

13 THE COURT: Thank you.

14 Juror No. 57 is not here.

15 Juror No. 61, good morning.

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning.

17 THE COURT: In connection -- for the lawyers, it's 18 questions 16, 24 and 25, that seem to be interrelated.

19 You mentioned that you were the victim of some 20 violence at the hands of your husband, I gather; correct?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

22 THE COURT: And I gather from your responses that 23 you called the police?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

25 THE COURT: How do you feel about the way the police

1 handled your situation?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They responded quickly when
3 I called them, because it happened twice. So, this was the 4 second time.

5 THE COURT: How long ago did that happen?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The second time, six months.

7 THE COURT: Six months ago?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

9 THE COURT: Did your husband get arrested?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, he did.

11 THE COURT: Was he prosecuted? Did he go to trial?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

13 THE COURT: Did you have to testify at the trial?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

15 THE COURT: And did he get sentenced?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

17 THE COURT: So, he's presently in jail, I
18 understand?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, he is.

20 THE COURT: How do you feel about the way the 21 prosecutors handled your situation?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They did a good job. I'm in 23 favor, because since I married my husband, he's been violent
24 to me, and they did a good job.

25 THE COURT: Is there anything at all about the

1 experience that you had, sort of in total, that you think
2 would affect your ability to be fair and impartial here?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

4 THE COURT: Would you be able to follow that
5 instruction that I will give about police testimony, that they 6 are not to be given -- believed more or believed less just
7 because they are police? Did you hear?

8 Would you be able to follow the instruction that I
9 will give that police are not to be believed more or believed 10 less just because they are police officers?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I understand.

12 THE COURT: You mentioned that your brother is in 13 the Navy, career Navy?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, twenty years.

15 THE COURT: Do you know whether he has ever served
16 as a military police officer?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. No.

18 THE COURT: Do you know whether he has ever
19 participated in any kind of military courts of any kind?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

21 THE COURT: You mentioned, also, that your husband
22 had a problem with alcohol?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

24 THE COURT: And even though alcohol is legal, it's 25 still a form of drug addiction, and you've heard that this

1 case involves allegations of the distribution of drugs. Is
2 there anything about those charges that you think would affect
3 your ability to be fair and impartial?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

5 THE COURT: In question number 46, the first part of 6 it, that question -- just to remind you -- said that "At this 7 point in time, do you have any opinion about whether any of 8 the defendants are guilty of the crimes charged?," and you
9 said "Yes," but you did not explain.

10 So, first, let me remind all of the jurors that the 11 defendants have been charged by way of indictment. The 12 indictment is not evidence of anything. They are presumed 13 innocent. They have pled not guilty, and that presumption of 14 innocence stays with them until the very, very end of the 15 case, until that time that the jury has heard all of the 16 evidence, I have given the jury the instructions on the law,
17 and the jury has had time to discuss the case, and the jury
18 decides unanimously, all together decides that the government
19 has sustained its burden of proving the guilt of the 20 defendants beyond a reasonable doubt. So, until that point in 21 time, the defendants are entitled to that presumption of 22 innocence.

23 So, understanding that, do you have any opinion at 24 this point as to whether or not the defendants are guilty or 25 not?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right now, they are not
2 guilty.

3 THE COURT: And sort of the same thing: You
4 answered "Yes" to the following questions, but did not have
5 any explanation, so let me remind you of what those questions
6 are.

7 Number 49 -- and this is, also, for anyone in the 8 jury who may have some issues. This is the time to raise
9 it -- and "The evidence in this case may include information
10 provided or obtained by individuals who participated in some 11 of the crimes charged in the indictment, and these witnesses
12 have pled guilty and are testifying pursuant to cooperation
13 agreements with the government in the hope that their own
14 sentence will be -- sentences will be reduced. It is 15 permissible for the government to present such witnesses for a
16 jury to rely on their testimony in reaching a verdict."
17 Obviously, the jury would have to make a decision, each juror
18 has to make a decision for him or herself, as to whether or 19 not you believe the testimony.

20 Do you have any beliefs or opinions that would 21 affect your ability to evaluate the testimony from such 22 witnesses fairly and impartially?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

24 THE COURT: And then question 50 reads as follows:
25 "The evidence in this case may include audio recordings of

1 conversations and meetings recorded secretly without the
2 knowledge of some of the participants in the conversations.
3 Before such evidence is received at trial, the Court" -- me --
4 "will have ruled that the evidence was lawfully obtained and 5 may be presented at the trial."

6 Do you have any feelings about the use of audio
7 recordings that were secretly but lawfully recorded that might
8 affect your ability to consider such evidence fairly?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't think so.

10 THE COURT: Thank you.

11 And just sort of what I call the catchall question,
12 you had left it blank, but I want to make sure that we covered
13 anything, is there any reason at all that you think you cannot 14 serve, why you think you cannot serve on this jury?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I left it out?

16 THE COURT: It could have been a mistake. It was a
17 long questionnaire. I want to make sure that there isn't 18 something.

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. No.

20 THE COURT: Thank you.

21 Juror No. 77. Good morning.

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning.

23 THE COURT: You told us that you work in banking?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I did.

25 THE COURT: How long have you been doing that work,

1 or are you retired now?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, they let us go from
3 the bank in 2001, after 9/11.

4 THE COURT: Is that the last time that you worked?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

6 THE COURT: So, where are you working now?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I started my own
8 business where I am doing sublimation.

9 THE COURT: What is that?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sublimation is like taking 11 an image -- I take the image from my camera and I put it on 12 the computer, and then I can use special ink and special
13 paper, and I can put that on a mug, a tie, a plate, a napkin
14 holder, I do mouse pads, key chains, ladies' hair barrettes,
15 bracelets. I do stuff like that, and I go and sell at flea
16 markets and all kinds of shops, things that they have. Like
17 during the summertime, I'm out working, and wintertime.

18 THE COURT: And so, do you do this every day?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I make designs every 20 day. I do the designs late at night, when something comes to 21 me.

22 THE COURT: When you get inspired?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Of course, we're not going to work on 25 Fridays, and so you would have that time to market your wares,

1 so to speak, and on the weekends.

2 Would sitting on a jury of this length of time, into
3 mid-August, would that be okay?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sure.

5 THE COURT: Thank you very much.

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You are welcome.

7 THE COURT: Juror No. 85. Good morning.

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning.

9 THE COURT: So, what do you like to do in your spare
10 time? We did ask you about news programs, but we didn't ask
11 you about what you might do in your spare time.

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have kids, so I actually 13 take them to the park and, you know, do stuff with them. When 14 they are in school, my spare time is very limited, because I
15 have to like do a lot of housework on my days off. So, I also 16 like try to fit in the gym. That's what I do. That's about 17 really it.

18 THE COURT: Aside from the news stuff, do you like 19 to watch anything on particular?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Case Closed. It's a Spanish
21 channel.

22 THE COURT: It's sort of like a court show?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

24 THE COURT: I've seen it a couple of times.

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

1 THE COURT: Kind of like a Judge Judy type of show?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

3 THE COURT: I watch her sometimes, too, not to plug
4 the show. I do watch those every once in a while. And you
5 understand, of course, that these shows, whether they are on 6 Spanish TV or in the English language TV, or any other
7 language TV, I don't know if they translate it into other
8 languages or countries, they are really run for the dramatic 9 effect. They may be real cases, but they are cases that are 10 specially picked. They are very simple, they usually relate 11 to civil matters, money disputes between people, that kind of 12 a thing. Then the parties -- there's no jury like you all,
13 it's just the judge, and the judge decides, and it all happens
14 in half an hour or an hour, and that's it and it's done, and 15 they squeeze in at least two cases in that time period. So,
16 you understand that this process, of course, is not going to 17 be like that?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

19 THE COURT: And I am not going to talk to people the 20 way that they talk to the people --

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I can understand that.

22 THE COURT: -- the way Judge Judy talks to the 23 people.

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I understand that.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Is there anything at all about

1 this case that you think would affect your ability to be fair
2 and impartial?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

4 THE COURT: What are the kids going to be doing
5 during the summertime? You have a twenty-one year old. Is 6 the twenty-one year old with you?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, she is. But she's 8 working.

9 THE COURT: What's going to happen during the day
10 for your two younger ones?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That was the thing. When I
12 got picked and I came over here, the plan was that my children
13 were going to go with their father -- he lives in Indiana --
14 for the summer, so I wouldn't have a problem with the 15 baby-sitting. But unfortunately, one of them had to stay
16 back, the twelve-year-old, to go to summer school, and the 17 ten-year-old went with him. So, I'm trying to get her to 18 summer school to July 30, and then arrange a flight for her to 19 go and spend time with her father for August.

20 THE COURT: So, you have the younger one is staying 21 for school?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

23 The twelve-year-old, the middle one, she's staying,
24 and the ten-year-old is over there with her father.

25 THE COURT: How are you arranging for day care for

1 the one who is going to be in school?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's the thing. I'm
3 committed. I'm trying. Being she's twelve, she will have to 4 take the bus home and go to and from, and her grandmother
5 lives about three blocks away from the school where she was 6 selected to go, and that's how I'm trying to make
7 arrangements.

8 THE COURT: So, you are trying to make arrangements.
9 Do you know for sure whether that's going to work?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm trying to see, you know.
11 That was not the plan.

12 THE COURT: I understand.

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The plan was that they would
14 go with their dad and I would have the free time to come here
15 or go to work and they would be okay.

16 THE COURT: What about your job? Is your job going 17 -- you would need to make arrangements anyway; right, to go to 18 work?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, no matter what.

20 THE COURT: No matter what?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No matter what.

22 THE COURT: Do you get paid when you are not
23 working?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: What do you mean?

25 THE COURT: In other words, does the hotel pay you

1 for the days that you do not go to work?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. Actually, if I'm off,
3 I'm off, but only the days that on the schedule, they pay me.

4 THE COURT: So, do you work five days out of the 5 week?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. Most of the time, yes,
7 five days.

8 THE COURT: Do you know what their jury service
9 policy is?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, they will pay me.

11 THE COURT: They would pay you for the entire time,
12 even if it was six weeks?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They have to. That's their 14 rules.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

17 THE COURT: Juror No. 94, good morning.

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning.

19 THE COURT: And you mentioned that your spouse works
20 for HHA. Can you tell us what that is?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Home Health Aides.

22 THE COURT: She's a home health aide?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Are you presently a cab driver?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

1 THE COURT: And you've been doing that for two
2 years?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Before that, you were a tailor. Did you
5 work for yourself or for a company?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: At times, I worked for
7 myself. At times, I worked for a company.

8 THE COURT: As a cab driver, do you work every day?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I will work five or six
10 days. At times, it varies.

11 THE COURT: Do you work for yourself or for a
12 company?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I work for a company, but 14 the cab is for myself.

15 THE COURT: You basically use the cab for the 16 company?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's my vehicle. I work
18 from the base.

19 THE COURT: The base sends you the customers?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Do you get paid for the days that you
22 don't work?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: For the days I go to work?

24 THE COURT: The days that you do not work.

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

1 THE COURT: You do not get paid?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I get paid according to how
3 I work.

4 THE COURT: Okay. So, if you were to be chosen to 5 serve on this jury and sit for six weeks, that six weeks that
6 you would not get paid; right?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I get no pay.

8 THE COURT: Is that going to be a financial hardship
9 for you?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sure.

11 THE COURT: You also mentioned -- this is question
12 31 for the attorneys -- that you -- you said "Yes," that you
13 knew people that worked in this federal courthouse, and that 14 you know the U.S. Attorney, Loretta Lynch, and these 15 prosecutors who are here, the Assistant United States
16 Attorneys, Ms. Farhadian on the end, and Mr. Amatruda, Carter
17 Burwell and Eileen Rosato. Do you know those people?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. That was a mistake.

19 THE COURT: That was a mistake?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Thank you.

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

23 THE COURT: Juror 101. Good morning.

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning.

25 THE COURT: You've been at your current job for

1 about ten months?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

3 THE COURT: You're working in construction?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

5 THE COURT: What are you doing in connection with
6 construction?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm an inspector.

8 THE COURT: You are an inspector?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Are you working for a specific company?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, telephone.

12 THE COURT: You don't have to tell us. What were 13 you doing before you did that job?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Same thing.

15 THE COURT: But a different company?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Different company.

17 THE COURT: The same question. Are you on salary
18 with them; in other words, you get paid weekly or do you get 19 paid by the job?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Biweekly.

21 THE COURT: Biweekly. Okay. So, if you were to 22 serve here, you would still get your salary?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

24 THE COURT: And is there anything at all about this 25 case that you think would affect your ability to be fair and

1 impartial here?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have a problem with my leg
3 now.

4 THE COURT: You have problems with your legs?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have a problem with my
6 knees, both knees.

7 THE COURT: You have a problem with both knees?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

9 THE COURT: I can sympathize, because I do, too.
10 You need to stand up every once in a while and stretch and so
11 on?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

13 THE COURT: All right. Do you have any problems
14 going up and down stairs and things like that?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

16 THE COURT: In fact, in just a few minutes we're 17 probably going to take a little bit of a break, anyway, so
18 that everybody can sort of stretch their legs. But if we did
19 that, you would be okay? Because we are going to have breaks.
20 If you are chosen to serve on the trial, we'll have a break in 21 the middle of the morning, and we have an hour break for 22 lunch. You come back in the afternoon, and we have a break in 23 the middle of the afternoon, and we'll break around 5:00,
24 5:30, depending on what's going on in the day. Would that be 25 okay? You get a chance to stand up.

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I can stand up.

2 THE COURT: Move around.

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. It would not be too
4 much.

5 THE COURT: Juror 85. I just want to make sure of 6 one thing. If you were able to make the arrangements with the 7 grandmother, would you be able to stay until 5:30 or 6:00
8 o'clock? Not necessarily every day. My hope is if we do have 9 a particular witness, that we can finish up that day and not 10 have to start all over again the next day. We may go a little 11 bit later. I'm not expecting that to happen every day. Would 12 that present a problem?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. That would be fine.

14 THE COURT: Thank you.

3 with the reporter before we continue.

5 hearing of the jury.)

7 (Side-bar.)

8 THE COURT: Juror Number 107, I had a concern about
9 a compromise of anonymity, question number 19. There were a
10 number of follow-up questions as well; had a close friend,
11 gave a full name, retired FBI; last boss at work, gave the 12 full name, retired Secret Service; colleague at work, gave the 13 full name, retired NYPD detective; friend and neighbor, gave 14 the full name, retired NYPD.

15 Listen, in the age of Google, there is no way that 16 someone skilled, even semiskilled, could not find out where 17 this juror lives and who he is, full identity.

18 MR. JASPER: Yes.

19 MR. RUSSELL: Do you just want to ask him some other
20 questions so he is not pointed out?

21 THE COURT: Yes. The mom was mugged, the son was 22 arrested for DUI. He has other issues; challenged not to do
23 his own research; he has a home closing anyway in mid-August.
24 So I could just go to the media question because it never 25 hurts to emphasize that and then, talk about the home closing

Jury Selection

250

1 and then let it be.

2 ALL: Yes, yes.

3 THE COURT: And then, I think, is he our last one?

4 When we finish that row, we will take a break. That will
5 probably take to us 11:00 o'clock anyway.

6 ALL: All right.

7 THE COURT: So, that will be on consent?

8 ALL: Yes, Judge.

9 (Side-bar end.)

11 (In open court.)

12 THE COURT: So, let me just mention, every now and 13 again I might have a conference with the attorneys on the side
14 and that is because we are discussing either some scheduling
15 matters or legal matters that do not concern the jury.

16 Please, do not speculate about what we are discussing. They 17 are just matters that do not concern the jury and you should 18 not worry about that. Thank you for your patience.

19 Juror Number 107, good morning.

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning.

21 THE COURT: I understand that you have the prospect
22 of closing on a home.

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: We are having a home built
24 for ourselves, a retirement home in North Carolina.

25 THE COURT: Nice.

Jury Selection

251

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right now, it's in progress
2 and it's due to be completed sometime around the end of July,
3 beginning of August.

4 THE COURT: Okay. So, you are looking at the 5 prospect of closing on that, hopefully, very soon.

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right, of moving there,
7 actually.

8 THE COURT: Of moving, actually. Okay.

9 Would you be moving at around that time, as soon as 10 it was done?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, once it's ready, we 12 would move.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 Are they pretty much on track?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, we had a slow start,
16 but now it's sort of catch-up mode, he's actually going a
17 little faster than he thought.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 With respect to the media, as I mentioned earlier, I
20 am going to be instructing the jury that you cannot conduct
21 your own research or investigation on the facts of the case or 22 anything connected with the case by using the Internet to
23 Google, as we say now, or do any other kind of research or use
24 any other kind of research medium, whatever it is, to conduct
25 other research or investigation on the defendants or the

Jury Selection

252

1 attorneys or the Court or anything connected with this case.
2 You told us that you could follow the Court's instruction, but
3 that it would be a challenge to do so.

4 Why is that?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Because I was very curious
6 after being selected, but I didn't -- I kept myself from doing
7 any Google searches.

8 THE COURT: Okay, well we like to hear that.

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was curious, but I didn't,
10 I didn't do it. I stayed true to my word.

11 THE COURT: Good, thank you very much.

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

13 THE COURT: Thank you. Okay, thank you very much.

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You're quite welcome.

15 THE COURT: And Juror Number 119, good morning.

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning.

17 THE COURT: I understand that you are a retired
18 corrections officer.

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

20 THE COURT: In what facility or facilities did you
21 work in? Were they State or Federal, that is all we need to 22 know.

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: State.

24 THE COURT: State.

25 How long did you do that?

Jury Selection

253

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Eight years. Seven years,
2 seven years.

3 THE COURT: Seven years.

4 Did you do any of other kind of work before that?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Since I was a kid? Menial
6 jobs, yes.

7 THE COURT: Okay, all right.

8 And how long ago did you retire?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: A long time ago.

10 THE COURT: A long time ago, okay.

11 The reason why I am asking was because I wasn't 12 sure. You said retired 25 years, but I wasn't sure if that 13 meant that you were in corrections for 25 years, so you've 14 clarified that, thank you.

15 You have a son who is serving in the Air Force now?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

17 THE COURT: So, he is presently in the Air Force.

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

19 THE COURT: And out of the country.

20 Do you know whether he has served in the military
21 police capacity?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I don't believe he did.

23 THE COURT: Or in any kind of tribunal?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's possible, but I can't 25 be sure.

Jury Selection

254

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 You also mentioned that you have a son in the NYPD.

3 Is that the same son?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I don't have a son in
5 NYPD.

6 THE COURT: Oh, okay. So, that may have been an 7 error, then.

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Father, brother, uncle,
9 friends.

10 THE COURT: Oh, so you come from a long line of 11 NYPD.

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, pretty much.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 By the way, do you know whether any of them ever
15 worked in the field of narcotics?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Probably my father.

17 THE COURT: Okay, is he retired?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He's deceased, but...

19 THE COURT: I'm sorry.

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: But he was retired when he 21 passed away.

22 THE COURT: I see, I am sorry for your loss.

23 And so, he probably worked in narcotics at some 24 point?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, he did. I know he did.

Jury Selection

255

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 Is there anything at all about the fact that you all
3 are pretty much in law enforcement that you think would affect
4 your ability to be fair and impartial here?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Do you think I can be an
6 impartial juror?

7 THE COURT: Well, it's not up to me. I have to rely 8 on what you tell us because it took so many years and so many 9 experiences to make you who you are. There are no wrong or 10 right answers here, we are just trying to make sure that this
11 is a right fit with the people who have been asked to be here.

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I, I have time to sit and be 13 a juror, but as far as being impartial? I don't know.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You know, that's a tough
16 one.

17 THE COURT: Let me ask you a different way. You've 18 heard me ask questions about an instruction that I will give 19 about whether a police officer's testimony will be given more
20 weight or less weight than anyone else.

21 Given your background, do you think that you would 22 be inclined to believe a police officer more or less because 23 they are a police officer or in law enforcement?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I certainly think I would be 25 inclined to believe them more.

Jury Selection

256

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 Thank you, we appreciate your honesty.

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

4 THE COURT: And you had some issues with sitting for 5 long periods of time as well, right?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

7 THE COURT: So, given that we're going to take some 8 breaks, is that okay?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, that would be fine,
10 that would be okay.

11 THE COURT: Okay. All right, thank you.

12 And Juror Number 121, good morning.

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning.

14 THE COURT: You told us that you have a roommate?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Is your roommate working?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

18 THE COURT: What kind of work does your roommate do?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: She's a nanny.

20 THE COURT: She's a nanny?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

22 THE COURT: So, she's not a live-at-home nanny; she 23 works during the day --

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

25 THE COURT: -- and then comes back to live with you?

Jury Selection

257

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: She goes from Sunday to
2 Friday.

3 THE COURT: Sunday to Friday?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: She leaves on Sunday, comes
7 back on Friday.

8 THE COURT: Okay. So, basically, she's a roommate
9 for like, the weekend.

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Not a bad deal, right?

12 You told us that you've been working at a hospital
13 for seven years.

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Did you have a different job before
16 that?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

18 THE COURT: What were you doing before that?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was a nanny for a few
20 years, I did taxes during the tax season, I did retail.

21 THE COURT: Retail. Okay, thank you.

22 So, you have training in nursing, in that health
23 area?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, it's not nursing. It's 25 processing and deal with the instruments for the surgeries.

Jury Selection

258

1 THE COURT: I see, okay.

2 You sat on a jury and I know it was a civil case,
3 you told us.

4 What did you think about that experience?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was, it was good. It was
6 knowledgeable. You know we looked at the facts and, you know,
7 judge based on the facts.

8 THE COURT: Thank you.

9 Okay. We have some more follow-up questions for the 10 rest of you but at this time, as I promised, I am going to 11 give everybody a little bit of a break for about 15 minutes.

12 So, remember that you are not supposed to do any 13 kind of research, read or investigate or do anything, look at 14 anything, listen to anything that might be connected with this 15 case in any way, shape or form.

16 And another thing, I have asked the parties not to 17 have any contact with any of the prospective jurors and it is 18 because we do go through such a very detailed process to try
19 to make sure that we pick a fair and impartial jury and so,
20 while we don't want people to be rude or to be antisocial, it
21 is just another way that we have to make sure that our 22 prospective jurors are kept free from any kind of influence in 23 any way.

24 So, there is a sort of reverse side to that coin.
25 The other side of that coin is that I am going to ask all of

Proceedings

259

1 you not to have any kind of contact with any of the parties or
2 any of the Court staff, even something as simple as saying
3 hello or good morning. Again, we don't want people to feel
4 that they're being rude or antisocial, it is just the best way
5 that we have to make sure that our prospective jurors remain
6 free from any kind of influence at all.

7 So, when you come back, you are going to come back
8 at 11:15. Please, wait outside and wait to be called in to 9 the courtroom. We'll call you in when we are ready. Just 10 make sure that you are all congregated outside by 11:15 and 11 the sooner you come back, of course, the sooner we can get 12 started, all right?

13 Thank you, I think Juror Number 57 is back here,
14 okay. So, make sure you take your belongings with you. When 15 we call you back in, you are going to resume the same seats,
16 so keep an eye on where you're sitting, okay?

17 Thank you.

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Can we stay?

19 THE COURT: No, I am going have to ask you to step
20 outside. There are places to sit outside, we have a cafeteria
21 on the third floor and there are places to sit there. Just be 22 careful walking down that step, please.

23 (Prospective Jurors exit.)

24 (In open court; outside the presence of the jury.)

25 (Recess taken.)

Proceedings

260

1 (In open court.)

2 (Judge DORA L. IRIZARRY enters the courtroom.)

3 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: All rise.

4 THE COURT: This is case on trial, continued.

5 Voir dire is continued. All of the parties are present and
6 accounted for, so we are going to bring in the jurors so that
7 we can continue.

8 (Prospective Jurors enter.)

9 THE COURT: Welcome back ladies and gentlemen. And 10 we joined by Juror Number 57.

11 What happened to you this morning?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I overslept, Judge.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Well, that can't happen again if 14 you're chosen to serve on this case. Because once we are on 15 trial -- we were able to continue on, but if you are chosen to 16 serve on the case, we can't go forward unless we have 17 absolutely everyone present, okay?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

19 THE COURT: Because absolutely every juror is 20 important to the case.

21 I am going to go a little bit out of order and then
22 we'll go back to the next juror, who will be number 139.

23 I just wanted to follow up, ma'am, with some of the 24 responses that you gave to the questionnaire that you filled
25 out a couple of weeks ago in this case. I want to first

261

1 address some of the issues that you raised and perhaps, maybe
2 we should discuss this at the side with Counsel, please, with
3 the reporter.

4 (Side-bar conference held on the record out of the
5 hearing of the jury.)
6

7 (Side-bar.)

8 THE COURT: Are you okay? I see you limping.

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 So, you addressed some issues concerning doctor
12 appointments.

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

14 THE COURT: You have sciatica, I guess that's why
15 you are limping.

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

17 THE COURT: Do you take medication for the sciatica?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

19 THE COURT: What kind of medication do you take?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I can't pronounce it. I
21 take it twice at nighttime -- morning time and at nighttime.

22 THE COURT: Are they painkillers?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, for me to walk because 24 I couldn't really walk.

25 THE COURT: I see. And do these painkiller make you

Side-Bar

262

1 drowsy?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, they do.

3 THE COURT: They do.

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

5 THE COURT: That's probably the reason why you
6 overslept, right?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

8 THE COURT: So, you've got to take them at night and 9 you've got to take them in the morning.

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't take them in the 11 morning. I take them at night because I be at work and I fall
12 asleep.

13 THE COURT: I see, so you deal with the pain; is 14 that it, during the day?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

16 THE COURT: When you have this pain, are you able to 17 focus on what you are doing?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sometimes I can, sometimes I
19 can't.

20 THE COURT: Okay. So, it's a little distracting.

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

22 THE COURT: You mentioned some doctor appointments.
23 How regular are these doctor appointments?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I have two --

25 THE COURT: Would you like for to us pull up a chair

Side-Bar

263

1 for you?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Can we pull up a chair for her.
4 Better?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

6 THE COURT: All right.

7 So, how often are these doctor appointments?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, my doctor -- I have 9 two doctors, one for diabetic and one for my leg.

10 THE COURT: Right.

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And they are like every,
12 maybe every other month.

13 THE COURT: Every other month. So, when are your 14 next appointments coming up?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: July, I think the 10th.

16 THE COURT: July 10th.

17 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: That's a Wednesday.

18 THE COURT: That's a Wednesday.

19 Is that an appointment that could be moved to a 20 different day? We don't sit here on Fridays. Or would it be 21 difficult.

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's, he told me I have to 23 keep them because it's for my leg and he doesn't be in the 24 office the other days, just like on Wednesdays.

25 THE COURT: Is he a specialist?

Side-Bar

264

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 And with respect to the diabetes, are you managing
4 it? What is the story with the diabetes?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I take a needle and he just 6 put me on some pills.

7 THE COURT: So, are you doing both the needle and 8 the pills?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Okay. And how often? The needle, we 11 are assuming, is for insulin; right?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I take that at 13 nighttime before bed.

14 THE COURT: At nighttime.

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Is that the only time you take it?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, the needle.

18 THE COURT: Okay. And then, the medication, do you
19 take that throughout the day?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I have to take it two 21 hours before I eat breakfast and two hours after. I think 22 it's two hours after.

23 THE COURT: Okay. What do you do about your diet?
24 I know some diabetics sometimes just carry their food around
25 with them.

265

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I just be careful on
2 what I'm eating. It's still too high, he's trying to bring it
3 down.

4 THE COURT: I see, so if your sugar goes too high,
5 what do you do?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I drink a lot of water.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: To bring it down.

9 THE COURT: All right. So, if we asked you to 10 serve, it would be okay if I let you bring in water you could 11 sip on during the time?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Mm-hmm.

13 THE COURT: As I explained earlier to the other
14 jurors, we normally sit between 9:30 and 5:00 o'clock. There
15 may be times we might go a little bit over, beyond
16 5:00 o'clock, just to finish up with a witness, if we can do
17 that quickly enough. And then we do take a break in the 18 middle of the morning and we take a break for lunch, an hour
19 break for lunch, and then we take another break in the middle 20 of the afternoon.

21 Now, in your situation, what do you need to do? Do
22 you need to move around or do you need to be sitting or lying
23 down? I don't know.

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He wants me, the medicine is 25 mostly for me lying down.

Side-Bar

266

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And like when I'm at work, I
3 take a pillow and sit up underneath my leg, so I can work.

4 THE COURT: Okay. What do you do again?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm a security supervisor.

6 THE COURT: You are a security supervisor.

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

8 THE COURT: So, are you sitting most of the time?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

10 THE COURT: You are standing.

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am standing and moving
12 around and checking things, making sure everything is in 13 order.

14 THE COURT: Okay. So, what is more of a problem for 15 you, standing or sitting?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sitting mostly.

17 THE COURT: Sitting is a bigger problem for you.

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 While I have you up here, you mentioned as well that 21 you had a brother who is deceased now.

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

23 THE COURT: I am sorry for your loss.

24 You also mentioned that he had been in prison?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

Side-Bar

267

1 THE COURT: Do you know what the charges were?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I can't remember.

3 THE COURT: How long ago was that.

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's about over 27 years
5 ago.

6 THE COURT: Oh, long time ago.

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Mm-hmm.

8 THE COURT: Was he an older brother?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: And you don't know anything at all about 11 the charges or what happened to him.

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

13 THE COURT: Is there anything about the fact that 14 your brother went to prison that you think would affect your 15 ability to be fair and impartial here?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

17 THE COURT: There was a question about whether you
18 were aware of any gang activity in the neighborhood and so on.

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Mm-hmm.

20 THE COURT: You mentioned that they come on the 21 project grounds sometimes to start fights.

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

23 THE COURT: There may be some allegations here about 24 gang or gang-type activity in the charges here.

25 Is there anything about that and your experiences

Side-Bar

268

1 that you think would affect your ability to be fair and
2 impartial?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

4 THE COURT: Are you in a lot of pain right now?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

6 THE COURT: You are.

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Mm-hmm.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 Are there any questions for the juror?

10 MR. AMATRUDA: Your Honor, would you inquire whether 11 the juror has a feeling either way about whether her brother
12 was treated fairly or not?

13 THE COURT: Do you have any sense about whether your 14 brother was treated fairly or not by the system?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 Yes, ma'am?

18 MS. FARHADIAN: May I go back to just the first 19 thing we were talking about, the medication you take for the 20 sciatica. So, you said you take it at night, but not in the 21 morning.

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not in the morning.

23 MS. FARHADIAN: I don't know what that medication is 24 and I don't want to pry, but does it affect your ability to 25 concentrate?

Side-Bar

269

1 THE COURT: To focus.

2 MS. FARHADIAN: I don't know how much you're
3 comfortable saying as to what it is, I'm not familiar with it.

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't know the name of it.
5 I should have brought it with me, but I have to take it.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have to take it.

8 MS. FARHADIAN: Oh, of course.

9 THE COURT: So, the bottom line is that you were 10 told to take it in the morning for the pain, but you are not
11 taking it because otherwise you can't work.

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I can't work.

13 THE COURT: You can't function.

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I can't function.

15 MR. RUSSELL: Could I just ask a question?

16 THE COURT: Of course.

17 MR. RUSSELL: In not taking it in the morning but 18 walking around, does that help as opposed to not taking it and 19 sitting down?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

21 MR. RUSSELL: No.

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'd be in excruciating pain.
23 I just try to deal with it until I get home.

24 THE COURT: Do they give you any over-the-counter
25 stuff that you can take for it?

270

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, no. This is doctor
2 prescribed.

3 THE COURT: But, in other words, if you don't take
4 the prescription medicine, can you take something
5 over-the-counter to help with the pain, like Advil or Aleve?
6 There's a bunch of stuff out there. Tylenol?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I tried all those.

8 THE COURT: You tried all of those. And nothing
9 works?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Nothing.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 Are there any other questions?

13 ALL: No, thank you.

14 THE COURT: Thank you.

15 Be careful standing up, please, and sitting down.

16 Take your time.

17 Counsel, before you walk away.

18 You can go back to your seat.

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

20 THE COURT: Just take your time, be careful.

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Mm-hmm.

22 THE COURT: I'm just wondering whether we should 23 just, rather than have her here in pain, just let her go home.

24 ALL: Yes, that's fine.

25 (Side-bar end.)

Jury Selection

271

1 (In open court.)

2 THE COURT: Ma'am, Juror Number 57, you can go home.

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Do I have to come back?

4 THE COURT: Just make sure that you take all of your
5 belongings with you.

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: This is it?

7 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: Yes.

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay, thank you.

9 THE COURT: Feel better.

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

11 THE COURT: We just don't want you sitting here in 12 pain.

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: All right thank you.

14 THE COURT: Be careful please, stepping out.

1 (In open court)

2 THE COURT: We are back following our order. We are
3 up to juror number 139.

4 Good morning.

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning.

6 THE COURT: You had an uncle who is presently in the 7 Army.

8 Is he a career Army person?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't know that much about
10 him. I just know he goes every month for two weeks.

11 THE COURT: Okay. So he's what we call a reservist
12 then?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

14 THE COURT: So he gets called on a monthly basis,
15 whenever they need him.

16 You mentioned also that you had a brother, two or 17 three years ago, with the NYPD. Is it that he applied or is 18 he working?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He applied for it.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Has he been accepted?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

22 THE COURT: Okay. You have been working at your 23 current job doing personnel compliance?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

25 THE COURT: For three years.

1 Were you working before that?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The same company, for a
3 total of 14 years. Three years in the present job.

4 THE COURT: What were you doing for them before
5 that?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Working in the trading floor
7 in operations.

8 THE COURT: You have some young children and I
9 gather you have care for them during the day while you are 10 working?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

12 THE COURT: You will have the same care for them if 13 you were chosen to serve on this case?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

15 THE COURT: Does your job pay for jury service?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Of course, yes.

17 THE COURT: They do. Okay.

18 Is there anything at all, any reason at all, any 19 reason why you think you can't serve on this jury?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not at all.

21 THE COURT: Thank you.

22 And juror number 144, good morning.

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning.

24 THE COURT: You are a nurse, correct?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

1 THE COURT: How long have you been a nurse?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Fifteen years.

3 THE COURT: Fifteen years?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

5 THE COURT: Do you work at -- without telling us
6 specifically where, you are working at a nursing home?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Did you ever work at hospital?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

10 THE COURT: No.

11 Have you ever done emergency room work before?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

13 THE COURT: So the people that are your clients or 14 your patients, are they elderly people?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Mostly?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Okay. You have a child who is a case
19 manager or a social worker?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Do you ever talk to your daughter about 22 the work she does?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Does she sometimes work with people who 25 have drug problems?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Is there anything about -- you have 3 heard me mention that this case concerns allegations of
4 distribution of drugs. Is there anything about perhaps a
5 conversation that you have had with your daughter or the work
6 that you have done as a nurse, as a care giver, and the fact
7 that this case concerns drugs, that you think would affect
8 your ability to be fair and impartial in this case?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

10 THE COURT: Just generally, do you have any thoughts
11 about the criminal justice system, whether it is fair or it is 12 not fair or perhaps ways it can be improved? Do you have any 13 thoughts at all?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: There might be ways it could
15 be improved but that's just my thoughts.

16 THE COURT: In what way do you think maybe it could 17 be improved?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: What should I say? I would 19 say from the -- probably like the judgment sometimes.

20 THE COURT: In what way?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Depends on like how many 22 years a criminal will get or if they are going to get years or 23 if they are going to get some other form of, you know,
24 justice. But that is just really my thoughts.

25 THE COURT: Right.

1 Of course, you are perfectly entitled to have your
2 opinion and your thoughts.

3 There are a lot of debates out there about whether 4 there are sentences that are too long or too short, for 5 example, and of course everyone is entitled to have their
6 opinion about that. There is no wrong or right in that 7 regard.

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

9 THE COURT: Everyone is entitled to their opinion.

10 One of the instructions that I will be giving to the 11 jurors who are chosen to serve is that whatever verdict they 12 render has to be based only on the evidence that is presented,
13 the admissible evidence that's presented, my instructions on 14 the law, and the jurors will have to apply that evidence and 15 the facts as they find them to the law as I give it and they
16 have to have a discussion about that and make a decision
17 unanimously whether or not the government has sustained their 18 burden of proof.

19 In reaching that decision, the jury has to be free
20 from any kind of sympathy or bias or prejudice and they also 21 cannot consider any question of possible punishment. Because 22 if there is a verdict of guilty, a unanimous verdict of 23 guilty, then, if there is going to be punishment, that's going
24 to be up to the Court alone.

25 Regardless of what your views are, would you be able

1 to render a verdict free from any thoughts of punishment or
2 sympathy or bias or anything of that sort?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

5 Juror number 156, good morning.

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning.

7 THE COURT: You have been looking for work for a
8 while, correct?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Okay. How is that going?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am picking up little jobs
12 here and there. But nothing steady yet.

13 THE COURT: Nothing steady.

14 You heard me mention that this case could go for 15 approximately six weeks, thereabouts, six to seven weeks. How 16 would that affect you?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That would put a strain on 18 me financially and my family.

19 THE COURT: When --

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I need to go out there to 21 find work.

22 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I need to be out there
24 looking for work.

25 THE COURT: You also mentioned issues about sitting.

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm sorry?

2 THE COURT: You mentioned issues about sitting for
3 long periods of time?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

5 I had broke my back years ago and I have metal bars
6 inside my spine.

7 THE COURT: Does standing help you?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Standing is better than 9 sitting.

10 THE COURT: Standing is better than sitting.

11 If you were chosen to serve on the jury, sometimes I
12 have made arrangements so that the jurors can be placed in a
13 situation where the juror can stand when they feel the need to 14 stand. Would that be helpful to you?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It would be, yes.

16 THE COURT: Okay. You also mentioned that you may 17 have some issues hearing. Have you been able to hear us well
18 enough?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I miss words once in a
20 while, yes.

21 I also have tinnitus.

22 THE COURT: You do? That affects your hearing?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Okay. You also -- for the attorneys
25 it's question 35. That was sort of a general question asking

1 about any experience that any of the prospective jurors may
2 have had or family members or close friends with respect to
3 the abuse of alcohol or drugs.

4 You answered, have done illegal drugs. But I don't
5 know if you meant yourself or someone that you knew, if you
6 could just elaborate on it.

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was myself, but many 8 years ago.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Did you ever get arrested or 10 charged as a result of that?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

12 THE COURT: No.

13 Is there anything at all about the nature of the 14 charges that you think would affect your ability to be fair
15 and impartial?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

17 THE COURT: Okay. I see you holding an envelope.
18 Is that something that you would like for us to see?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I just have documents
20 showing that I had the back surgery.

21 THE COURT: Okay. We can take your word for that.

22 Again, if you feel that even standing in place would 23 be helpful for you while we finish this process, feel free to 24 do that.

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay. Thank you.

1 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

2 Thank you.

3 Juror 158, good morning.

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning.

5 THE COURT: For question number 13, I just wanted to 6 follow-up on your answer.

7 What's the highest grade that you completed in
8 school?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: College.

10 THE COURT: You went to college?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Was that here in the United
13 States?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

15 THE COURT: What was your major?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Marketing and PR.

17 THE COURT: Exactly what you are doing now?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Good.

20 You have been doing that for six months now?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Were you working before that?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Before this job, it was a
24 bunch of internships.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Sort of setting you up for the

1 job that you have now?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

3 THE COURT: You have also mentioned that you have a
4 friend who is in the New York City Police Department?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

6 THE COURT: Is this a close friend?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I met him from another
8 friend. I am not close with him. I just know he works there.

9 THE COURT: Do you know whether that person works in
10 the narcotics division?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am not sure.

12 THE COURT: Do you ever get a chance to talk to him
13 about his work?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not really.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Are you working for a company or 16 for yourself.

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: A company.

18 THE COURT: You are working for a company.

19 You only have been at that job for six months. Have 20 you discussed with them what they pay for jury service?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They are not paying me.

22 THE COURT: They are not paying you?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

24 THE COURT: So how are you going to be supporting 25 yourself besides the jury stipend that you will get?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I can't.

2 THE COURT: Is this a hardship for you?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

4 THE COURT: You live with your mom and dad and your 5 brother?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

7 THE COURT: The home, does it belong to your
8 parents?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Are you living there rent-free right
11 now?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

13 THE COURT: You are. Okay.

14 Why would this be a hardship for you?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My aunt has cancer. So I
16 help out around the house with groceries and babysitting my 17 baby cousin. Just trying to help out with the family.

18 THE COURT: Okay. But that's not a financial 19 hardship. That's stuff that you do on your own time, right?

20 What are your hours?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I also have work and bills
22 to pay.

23 THE COURT: You have bills to pay and work, did you
24 say?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

1 THE COURT: What do you mean?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I need a job to pay for my
3 bills.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Like what kind of bills are you
5 talking about?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Credit card bills and I also 7 help out -- I don't pay rent but I also pay for groceries at 8 the home. So most of my money goes to food for my family.

9 THE COURT: Can mom and dad help support you while
10 you do an important public service?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I haven't asked my parents
12 for money. I kind of just give them my money. So I feel
13 wrong if I ask them for six weeks to pay for stuff.

14 THE COURT: Are they working?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My dad is a mailman. My mom
16 is a stay at home mom.

17 THE COURT: She is a stay at home mom?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

19 THE COURT: How old is your brother?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My brother is 26.

21 THE COURT: He is 26?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

23 THE COURT: Does he work?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He's unemployed right now.

25 THE COURT: He is unemployed?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Do you have any student loans?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do not.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

5 Juror 165, good morning still.

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning.

7 THE COURT: You have a daughter who is a lawyer?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's correct.

9 THE COURT: Do you know whether she has done any 10 kind of criminal work?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not recently, no.

12 THE COURT: But she has done it in the past?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

14 THE COURT: As a defense lawyer or as a prosecutor,
15 do you know?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: As a clerking for a judge
17 and as a defense.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Do you know whether your daughter
19 clerked for a state judge or a federal judge?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Federal judge.

21 THE COURT: Federal judge?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

23 THE COURT: Here in the New York area?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Philadelphia.

25 THE COURT: In Philadelphia.

1 Do you get to talk to her at all about the work that
2 she did?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Is there anything at all about those
5 conversations that you think would affect your ability to be
6 fair and impartial?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not those particular
8 conversations, no.

9 THE COURT: Are there any kind of conversations that 10 you have had with her that you think might affect your ability
11 to be fair and impartial?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. Sorry.

13 THE COURT: You are still on retirement status?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Okay. You were in the military. What 16 branch of the military were you in?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Air Defense Artillery but I
18 was assigned to the 591 military police.

19 THE COURT: You were in the military. Is that Army?
20 Excuse my ignorance.

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, Army.

22 THE COURT: Okay. As a military police
23 officer -- how long did you do that?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: About eight months.

25 THE COURT: Eight months.

1 As a military police officer, did you have to make
2 arrests?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Did you have to testify before a
5 military court or a civilian court?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

7 It was primarily in apprehension and transportation.

8 THE COURT: Okay. As I mentioned earlier, there are 9 likely going to be police officers or other law enforcement
10 people here testifying during the course of the trial.

11 Do you think based on the fact that you have done
12 some police type of work that you would be inclined to believe
13 an officer's testimony more or less because they are a police
14 officer?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would be inclined to agree
16 more with the officers.

17 THE COURT: You mentioned also that you have some 18 hearing issues as well, correct?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Have you been able to hear everything we 21 have been saying here?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Pretty much so, yes.

23 THE COURT: Okay. You served on a federal criminal 24 trial as well about four years ago. Was that here in this 25 courthouse?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, it was.

2 THE COURT: Is there anything about the service on
3 that jury that you think would affect your ability to be fair
4 and impartial here?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

6 THE COURT: What did you think about the experience?
7 I always kind of keep my fingers crossed when I ask that
8 question.

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was a very interesting
10 experience. It would be even better if they could put the 11 federal courthouse in more easily located locations.

12 THE COURT: We do have a courthouse in Central Islip
13 but travel there is not so easy either. I understand that.
14 You have to talk to your Congress people about giving more
15 money to the judiciary on that score. But money is tight all
16 the way around.

17 We thank you for that observation.

18 Thank you very much.

19 MR. HERMAN: Judge, I'm sorry. On the hardship,
20 number one.

21 THE COURT: Yes?

22 MR. HERMAN: Did you inquire about that? I am not 23 sure.

24 THE COURT: Yes. He said that he has been able to 25 follow.

1 MR. HERMAN: I'm sorry. Page 25, some medical
2 issues that he made reference to.

3 THE COURT: Oh, yes.

4 Can we just have you come up for a minute, sir?

5 (Side bar.)

6 (Juror joins side bar.)

7 THE COURT: Sir, if you will step over here next to 8 me.

9 I did want to follow-up with these. I did have that 10 on my list. Thank you for reminding me.

11 You mentioned that you had or have colon cancer.

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I -- it's in remission.

13 THE COURT: It's in remission.

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: But the problem with that is 15 on a daily basis when I get up in the morning I have to go to 16 the restroom and I'll have to do that at least two more times
17 sometime during the morning.

18 THE COURT: Are you taking medication for that?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am taking -- not for that.
20 But I get a colonoscopy every -- once a year.

21 But for the diabetes and the high blood pressure I
22 am taking metformin, laborite, timalin, and I have it written
23 down.

24 THE COURT: You take four different kinds of 25 medications for the diabetes?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Do you have to take insulin shots?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

4 THE COURT: No shots.

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not yet any way.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 First things first.

8 What about with the cancer, is that something that
9 you have to have any kind of regular visits besides the once a
10 year exam?

11 In other words, are you seeing a doctor on a regular 12 basis?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Absolutely.

14 THE COURT: How frequently do you --

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Every six months.

16 THE COURT: When are you due to see the doctor
17 again?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: In December.

19 THE COURT: In December. Okay.

20 With the hearing, you say that you need hearing
21 aids. Are you using hearing aids now?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. Not right now.

23 What happens is, I also have allergies. What will 24 happen is, if I put the hearing aids in, I get water in my
25 ears. So it just doesn't work out.

1 Today it's very little -- no background information.
2 But if you are speaking and you said to me, spaghetti, for
3 instance, I would hear are you ready. Or if you said please,
4 I might think you said sneeze.

5 THE COURT: It sorts of gets translated into
6 something different?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

8 What you are saying, what I am hearing, isn't always 9 the same thing.

10 THE COURT: I see.

11 Do you have any follow-up questions?

12 MR. RINALDO: Can I ask one thing?

13 There is one answer to one of the judge's questions
14 which confused me a little. It might just be me.

15 She asked about if your conversations with your 16 daughter who is a lawyer might affect your ability to be fair.
17 You said not those conversations.

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

19 MR. RINALDO: But are there conversations with other
20 people that might affect your ability to be fair?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: When I was in the military
22 police, I worked with Border Patrol, Immigration and the 23 Customs. So what we did is we were on a secure military base.
24 We literally had to patrol the border. --

25 THE COURT: You were in El Paso?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

2 This was before it was organized the way it is now.
3 So you would be 70, 80 miles out in the middle of the desert.
4 You would find people that have come across the border. Most
5 of those experiences --

6 MR. RINALDO: So those experiences might affect your 7 ability in this case?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, unfortunately.

9 MR. RINALDO: Okay.

10 THE COURT: All right. Are you feeling now -- are 11 you comfortable now? Are you okay now?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not really.

13 THE COURT: That was a loaded question. Are you in 14 any kind of pain or anything like that?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. Just a little.

16 THE COURT: You need water?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

18 THE COURT: Can we get anything for you?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: A little. No.

20 THE COURT: With diabetes I am always concerned.

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: We had the break. I had
22 water and I ate something.

23 THE COURT: So you are okay now?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Okay. But if you do feel that something

1 is not quite right, just kind of raise your finger. We will
2 kind of know. We will make sure that you are okay.

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

4 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

5 Have a seat.

6 (In open court.)

7 THE COURT: Thank you.

8 Juror 176, good afternoon.

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

10 THE COURT: You have been at your current job now
11 for five months. I will just get to it.

12 You are in human resources?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

14 THE COURT: You have been helping to provide housing
15 and services to people with mental illness?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

17 THE COURT: Some of those people, do they also have 18 issues with respect to drug use?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Is there anything about the work that 21 you do in connection with those people who are in need of 22 these services and the charges here that you think would
23 affect your ability to be fair and impartial?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

25 THE COURT: Were you working before that?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

2 THE COURT: What were you doing before that.

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Similar; payroll, benefits,
4 human resources.

1 THE COURT: With the same agency?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Different agency, same
3 service.

4 THE COURT: And do you also have -- your spouse is
5 in the Army National Guard, as well?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Retired.

7 THE COURT: Retired?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

9 THE COURT: Do you know whether he ever served --
10 did any military police duty?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, he did.

12 THE COURT: He did?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

14 THE COURT: Do you ever talk to him about the work
15 that he did in that capacity?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Somewhat.

17 THE COURT: Is there anything about that that you
18 think would affect your ability to be fair and impartial?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

20 THE COURT: You heard me talk about the legal 21 principle concerning how a jury evaluates the testimony of 22 police officers. You are not to give their testimony more
23 weight or less weight just because they are police officers.
24 Would you be able to follow that instruction?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

1 THE COURT: And your husband also had his car broken
2 into. Did he report that to the police?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

4 THE COURT: And do you know whether anyone was ever
5 arrested in connection with that?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

7 THE COURT: How do you feel about the way the police
8 handled this?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They responded. Very 10 courteous.

11 THE COURT: Anything about that that you think would
12 affect your ability to be fair and impartial?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

14 THE COURT: You also mentioned that your husband had 15 some excitement in his life?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, he has.

17 THE COURT: He also was involved in a court
18 proceeding of some sort. What was that?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Due to his employment. It
20 was a contractor, not him personally, but he had to testify.

21 THE COURT: Was that in the military tribunal?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't believe so. He was 23 a provost marshal at the time. So, I don't know the details.

24 THE COURT: I'm not sure what a provost marshal
25 does. Is that a person who brings the charges?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. My understanding --
2 again, we didn't discuss it a lot, because it was in his
3 deployment -- it was like a police chief for that base or that 4 camp.

5 THE COURT: Was that here in the United States, or 6 was that abroad?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That was abroad.

8 THE COURT: Just overall, is there any reason that 9 you can think of why you would not be able to serve on this
10 jury?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. No.

12 THE COURT: I gather that you're a salaried
13 employee?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

15 THE COURT: So, your employer will cover the cost of 16 service?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Thank you.

19 Now, we're moving over to our auxiliary rows.

20 Juror No. 177, good afternoon. You mentioned that 21 you work now currently in corrections; correct?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

23 THE COURT: Is that federal or state? Just 24 generally, federal or state?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: For the city.

1 THE COURT: It's for the city?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 So, actually, it's neither federal or state, it's
5 for the city.

6 And how long have you been doing corrections work?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Two years.

8 THE COURT: Two years?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Were you working before that?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

12 THE COURT: What kind of work were you doing before
13 that?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was an administrative 15 assistant for a bank part-time.

16 THE COURT: Can you tell us a little bit what it is 17 that you do in connection with your work? You mentioned that 18 you provide programs for assistance in corrections. Can you
19 tell us a little bit more about that work that you are doing?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right now, I'm still an 21 administrative assistant, so I work with like different
22 people, like different departments, to bring the programs to 23 corrections.

24 THE COURT: So, these are -- so, you are helping 25 people who are bringing programs into corrections for the

1 inmates who are housed there?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hmm.

3 THE COURT: Like educational programs?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't personally do those
5 programs, but I work with people who want to bring in a
6 program, so I talk to them. But I do a lot of administrative 7 stuff. I do reporting.

8 THE COURT: You provide like support work for the 9 program?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, hmm.

11 THE COURT: Do you have any direct contact with any 12 of the inmates, or do you work exclusively with the people who 13 are running the programs?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No -- yes.

15 THE COURT: So, you work for the people who are 16 running the programs?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Is there anything about the work that 19 you do that you think would affect your ability to be fair and 20 impartial?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

22 THE COURT: You did serve on a state jury before in 23 a criminal case. Is there anything about that work -- I'm 24 sorry -- your service on the jury, can you tell us about your 25 experience there? Did you like it? Did you not like it? Any

1 suggestions for how life could be better for jurors in the 2 state court as opposed to federal court?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was an interesting case.
4 The only downside, it's a lot of waiting time.

5 THE COURT: I understand that. I've been called to 6 jury duty, too. Nobody picked me. I wonder why. I have been
7 called. It is a little frustrating to sit around the whole
8 time. Do trust -- I'm here on the other side to tell you --
9 we are really working hard, even though you are sitting around
10 and waiting. There are reasons for it. It is a little
11 frustrating, because I have been on that side, too.

12 And you have a -- your sister -- the sister of your
13 brother-in-law is an attorney. Do you get a chance to chat
14 with her about the work she does?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not really. We don't like
16 to talk about work.

17 THE COURT: Does she do civil work or criminal work?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think it's like business
19 law.

20 THE COURT: She does like corporation work, for a
21 business?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

23 THE COURT: Thank you.

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You are welcome.

25 THE COURT: Juror No. 178. Good afternoon.

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon. Yes.

2 THE COURT: Can you tell us what is the highest
3 grade that you completed in school?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: High school.

5 THE COURT: Where did you go to school, here in the 6 United States?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Puerto Rico. I finished
8 high school.

9 THE COURT: In Puerto Rico?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

11 THE COURT: I gather from your answers that you are 12 retired?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

14 THE COURT: What kind of work did you do before you
15 retired?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sanitation.

17 THE COURT: How long were you doing sanitation work?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Twenty-two years.

19 THE COURT: Twenty-two years?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Here in New York?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

23 THE COURT: You have two children. Are they boys or 24 girls?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Boy and a girl.

1 THE COURT: A boy and a girl.

2 You were also in the National Guard. I think we
3 have the military for this pool.

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I did military time, nine
5 years.

6 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I did military time,
8 National Guard, nine years.

9 THE COURT: As a reservist or full-time?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: National, reserve, up in the 11 Bronx, infantry.

12 THE COURT: Did you ever get a chance to serve as a
13 military police officer?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

15 THE COURT: Or to perhaps participate in any kind of 16 military court in any way?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

18 THE COURT: It's not clear to me from your response
19 to jury service, did you actually get to serve on a jury?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Was that in state court or federal?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was on Schermerhorn. I
23 think it was the state.

24 THE COURT: On Schermerhorn Street. That would have 25 been state. Do you know if that was a grand jury or a trial

1 jury?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Small trial. I think an
3 accident trial.

4 THE COURT: So, it was a civil case?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, civil case.

6 THE COURT: Without telling us what the actual
7 verdict was, did the jury actually get the case to decide on a
8 verdict?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. They split.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Is there anything about that
11 experience that you think would affect your ability to be fair
12 and impartial in this case?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I have no problem.

14 THE COURT: For the attorneys, question 27.

15 You mentioned that you had some cousins who were -- 16 or friends who served some time in prison. How long ago was
17 that?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, they are still in 19 prison.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Do you know what the charges 21 were?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, well, drugs, possession,
23 shooting at cops, all kinds of things.

24 THE COURT: Were any of them in jail for murder or 25 attempted murder?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Attempted. It's like six of
2 them. They are all in there, the whole family.

3 THE COURT: How do you feel about the way their 4 cases were handled or they were treated by the police, by the 5 court system?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: All I heard about the case
7 is when they got locked up, because of the family, when I
8 called. I don't really get involved. I don't want to know
9 about that.

10 THE COURT: So, you don't know anything else about
11 that.

12 Is there anything about the fact that they are in 13 jail that would affect your ability to be fair and impartial
14 in this case?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

16 THE COURT: In what way?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Because you got to listen to 18 both sides before you decide anything. That's my thing.

19 THE COURT: But we are going to ask the jury exactly
20 that, to keep an open mind and to listen to all the evidence,
21 to observe the proceedings, and then to apply the facts that 22 are found by the jury, right, to the law as I'm going to give 23 it, and then the jury is going to have a discussion among 24 themselves once they actually get set and start their
25 deliberations, and the jury will have to decide unanimously

1 whether or not the government has sustained the burden of
2 proof beyond a reasonable doubt of proving the charges that
3 they have brought against Mr. Taylor and Mr. Pinkney.

4 Would you be able to do that?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

6 THE COURT: And the other thing that I mentioned
7 earlier, as well, in talking with some of your fellow jurors,
8 is that clearly, we're all human beings, and everybody brings
9 their experiences with them. But we are going to ask the jury
10 to set aside any sympathies, biases or prejudices or any 11 thoughts about punishment and not let that interfere with 12 whatever decision the jury reaches.

13 Would you be able to do that?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Thank you.

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You are welcome.

17 THE COURT: And Juror No. 179, good afternoon.

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

19 THE COURT: You mentioned that you also have some 20 issues with your knees and you need to move around. Is it
21 more difficult for you to be sitting?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I can sit for roughly ninety
23 minutes to close to two hours. After that, I have to get up
24 and walk around for a little bit.

25 THE COURT: More or less, that's about when we take

1 the breaks in the morning and in the afternoon. Today, we are
2 sitting a little bit more than we usually do. If we did that,
3 that would be okay?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

5 THE COURT: Are you taking any medication for the 6 knees, anything at all?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

8 THE COURT: You've been at your current job for
9 about two months, I think you said; correct?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: At that time, yes.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Were you working before that?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

13 THE COURT: What were you doing before that?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Computer support, financial 15 services, downtown.

16 THE COURT: How long were you doing that for?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Fourteen years.

18 THE COURT: You also mentioned that your wife
19 apparently has been the victim of a crime of assault. Was 20 that reported to the police?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Was anyone ever arrested?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My wife declined to press
24 charges. It was a family member.

25 THE COURT: It was a family member?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

2 THE COURT: How do you feel about the way that the
3 police or the prosecutors handled the case?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: There was no case.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: There was no case.

7 THE COURT: The police were told she didn't want the 8 person charged?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The police were called, they 10 wrote up an incident, but she declined to press charges after 11 that.

12 THE COURT: Okay. You mentioned that you had been 13 stopped once for speeding?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

15 THE COURT: How do you feel about that? That was 16 down in Virginia?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

18 THE COURT: What was that encounter like?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was caught dead to rights,
20 and the officer, because I had a screaming granddaughter in 21 the back seat, instead of taking me off to the police station,
22 just wrote it down to a misdemeanor charge.

23 THE COURT: How do you feel about that whole
24 situation? Do you to think you were treated fairly?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was grateful for that.

1 THE COURT: Is there anything about that experience
2 that you feel would affect your ability to be fair and
3 impartial here?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

5 THE COURT: You mentioned that your wife had an
6 on-the-job injury and she had -- did she have to testify in a
7 hearing?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was a lawyers' conference
9 or pretrial conference between the parties, and as a result of 10 that, they decided to settle out of court.

11 THE COURT: She never actually had to testify in a
12 proceeding?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Never in court, no.

14 THE COURT: Was she represented by an attorney?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

16 THE COURT: And how do you feel about the services
17 that were provided by the attorney?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I thought they were fair.

19 THE COURT: And you mentioned there was sort --
20 there was sort of a general question, number 35, about you
21 have some stepchildren that were involved with drugs and 22 alcohol. Were any of them -- did they ever receive any 23 treatment for it?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not that I am aware of.
25 They have kind of managed to kick the habit on their own.

1 THE COURT: Were they ever arrested or had to deal
2 with the court system as a result?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not that I am aware of, no.

4 THE COURT: You heard me mention that this case
5 involves allegations of distribution of drugs. Is there
6 anything about the experience of your stepchildren and the 7 charges that you think would affect your ability to be fair
8 and impartial?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

10 THE COURT: You did mention, as well, a potential
11 hardship, the possibility of a Long Island Rail Road strike --

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

13 THE COURT: -- in mid-July. Obviously, we have no
14 idea what's going to happen in that regard. The court has 15 survived a subway strike, and I'm sure that hopefully this 16 does not happen. But I'm sure that we will deal with it when 17 the time comes. You would not be the only person affected,
18 obviously. So, I would not want you to be concerned about
19 that.

20 Thank you.

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You are welcome.

22 THE COURT: Let me ask you: Is your employer going
23 to cover your jury duty?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not until the probationary
25 period is over.

1 THE COURT: When would that be over?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Roughly halfway into the 3 trial.

4 THE COURT: So, you would not get paid anything --

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Late July.

6 THE COURT: You're not getting paid now?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I will not be paid from my
8 employer for this day.

9 THE COURT: Did you mention whether your wife is 10 working or not?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, my wife is working.

12 THE COURT: How will this affect you?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It will not be a financial 14 hardship.

15 THE COURT: It won't?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It will not.

17 THE COURT: Thank you.

18 Juror 180. Good afternoon.

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

20 THE COURT: You had some encounters with the police.
21 I think, as you said it, you were in the wrong place at the 22 wrong time, is what you said. There was some sort of a bar
23 raid?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

25 THE COURT: What happened? You were arrested? Did

1 you have to spend the whole night in the lockup?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I was in a holding
3 thirty-plus hours for going to a happy hour and having a few
4 drinks and the bar was raided and they took everyone to jail.

5 THE COURT: So, what happened? Did you go to court
6 the next day?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

8 THE COURT: And what happened with the charges?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I had just started a new job
10 and I couldn't afford to go through a trial, so I had to plead
11 guilty in order to just pay a fine and be released on my own
12 recognizance.

13 THE COURT: Say that again?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I pled guilty, so I didn't
15 have to go to court. I just paid my fine and I was released.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was trespassing they 18 charged me with.

19 THE COURT: With trespassing.

20 How long ago was that?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Maybe eight to ten years
22 ago.

23 THE COURT: Is there anything at all about that
24 experience that you think would affect your ability to be fair
25 and impartial here?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I mean, I've gotten over it
2 at this point. At the time, my attitude may have been
3 different. I would say no.

4 THE COURT: You're going to hear testimony from law
5 enforcement people. Is there anything about your 6 experience -- or you also mentioned that your husband and your
7 brother, you said, were arrested for marijuana. I'm not sure
8 if that was your husband or your brother?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Both.

10 THE COURT: Both of them?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

12 THE COURT: And they were released and no charges
13 were brought?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

15 THE COURT: Am I understanding that right?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

17 THE COURT: So, you have had experiences yourself
18 and your husband and your brother, and would any of those 19 experiences affect your ability to assess the testimony of 20 police officers in a fair and impartial way; in other words, 21 not give them more or less credibility because they are
22 officers?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

24 THE COURT: Just as a follow-up: You also mentioned
25 that your husband had addressed these issues with respect to

1 marijuana. Is there anything about the nature of the charges
2 here that you think would affect your ability to be fair and
3 impartial?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

5 THE COURT: Thank you.

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: May I add something?

7 THE COURT: Of course. Please.

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Since the questionnaire, I
9 do have a medical condition that's going to require treatment.
10 I'm already in treatment, starting tomorrow. I do have a 11 schedule.

12 THE COURT: Why don't we talk to you up here, then.
13 (Sidebar.)

14 THE COURT: I want to give you some privacy. Are 15 you okay?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Just a little nervous.

17 THE COURT: Don't be nervous. We're all friendly
18 here.

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Unfortunately, the day after 20 the questionnaire, I and my husband cannot have children
21 naturally. Tomorrow starts my first treatment. We have to go
22 through in vitro fertilization to do that I would require to 23 go to my doctor every single morning to have blood tests and 24 sonograms. I brought all my paperwork. It's unfortunately it
25 happened, it crossed lines with the jury service. Then,

1 that's pretty much it.

2 THE COURT: All right. How long does this process
3 have to go?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: We're starting it now,
5 because it all depends on your body. Due to a state lab
6 shutdown in August, because they do auditing or whatever they
7 do, it's do it now. And then it could take until August,
8 until they shut the lab down. Then if it doesn't work, I have
9 to restart it again in September.

10 THE COURT: Start all over again?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

12 THE COURT: Any follow-up questions?

13 MR. AMATRUDA: No, your Honor.

14 MR. RINALDO: No, your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Thank you for telling us.

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No problem.

17 THE COURT: Are you okay?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm okay. I'm a little 19 jittery.

20 THE COURT: I understand. You can have a seat.

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

22 (In open court.)

23 THE COURT: Just chatting with our Juror 180. Thank 24 you very much.

25 We do recognize that from the time that you filled

1 out the questionnaire to today, things may have happened. And
2 I also want to remind all of you -- and I think I mentioned it
3 a little bit earlier, but in case it's not clear, if there is
4 some reason why you feel you cannot serve on this jury,
5 whether it's some kind of a hardship or anything that may have
6 developed after the time that you filled out the 7 questionnaire, you need to tell us today, so that we can
8 address it and we can discuss it with you, because if you get
9 chosen to serve on this jury, once you are chosen to serve,
10 I'm not going to entertain any applications about, Well, we 11 had travel plans, or there's some reason why I can't serve or 12 I have medical appointments or whatever it is that may come
13 up. This is the time to address it. Even if you don't know
14 whether it's relevant or not, this is the time to raise it.
15 We may decide it is relevant, and we'll make a decision
16 accordingly, but we can't make the right decision unless you
17 tell us, okay, because we're not in your mind and we don't 18 know.

19 Again, a reminder for some of you who have knee
20 problems and stuff like that or back problems, if you feel you
21 need to stand in place, feel free to do that if you need to do
22 that.

23 So, we're going to move along, and, again, thank you
24 to Juror No. 180.

25 204 is not here.

1 So, we're moving along to No. 223. Good afternoon.

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

3 THE COURT: How long have you been a Brooklyn
4 resident, ma'am?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Since 1970.

6 THE COURT: Just generally, you've been hearing me
7 ask a lot of questions to folks about a number of different
8 issues. Have you got any thoughts sort of generally about the 9 criminal justice system? Is it fair? Is it not fair? We've 10 had a conversation about perhaps ways it can be improved. Any 11 thoughts?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's a human institution and 13 as such is fallible. In general, I think it's pretty good.

14 THE COURT: You mentioned that you get a lot of your 15 news off the Internet, FaceBook, CNN and some radio. And you
16 heard me discuss quite a bit about the fact that jurors are 17 not going to be able to do any kind of research on the 18 Internet or from any kind of media -- I guess people still use
19 libraries, look at newspapers and things like that -- or read
20 or listen to any kind of report about this case that may come
21 over any kind of media. Would you be able to follow that 22 instruction?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. Like that gentleman
24 over there said, I suppressed the desire to go on Internet and 25 check anything when you said we cannot do that.

Jury Selection

316

1 (CONTINUING)

2 THE COURT: Well, thank you very much, and you know,
3 do you restore my faith, every time I talk to jurors, you all
4 restore my faith in the jury system because sometimes I wonder
5 whether the instructions are listened to or not and so I am
6 very happy to hear that you will did do that.

7 Thank you very much, ma'am.

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

9 THE COURT: And so, now we're moving on to our other
10 row in the back over there.

11 Juror Number 225, good afternoon.

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

13 THE COURT: Your sister's boyfriend, I think, is a
14 prosecutor in Pennsylvania?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Do you ever get a chance to talk to him
17 about the work he does?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: A little bit. It's just 19 like prosecuting youth for spray-painting on stuff, things 20 like that.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's the impression I get,
23 but not a whole lot of conversation, no.

24 THE COURT: Is there anything about those 25 conversations or the work that he does that you think would

Jury Selection

317

1 affect your ability to be fair and impartial in this case?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

3 THE COURT: You had a couple of incidents, this
4 relates to, I think, it's question 28. There was a shooting
5 outside your apartment, if I have it right?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

7 THE COURT: That there were some thoughts that it
8 might be gang-related and someone was murdered outside of your 9 girlfriend's apartment.

10 Was there any follow-up in connection with that? Do
11 you know whether anyone was arrested in connection with either
12 of those two incidents?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The second one, the one
14 outside my apartment, people were arrested because they went
15 back to the scene to try to fetch the gun that had been fired
16 and they got caught because the police were there.

17 And the first one, where someone was murdered, I'm 18 not sure if anyone was arrested.

19 THE COURT: Were you a witness in any way to any of 20 those incidents?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

22 THE COURT: Do you know what the outcome was, other
23 than some people were arrested?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I know for the one outside
25 my apartment some people went to trial. I'm not sure what the

Jury Selection

318

1 consequences were, but the one with the murder, I'm not
2 certain.

3 THE COURT: Is there anything about those two 4 incidents that would affect your ability to be fair and
5 impartial here?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

7 THE COURT: You were going to see whether your job
8 pays for jury duty.

9 Were you able to find out?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, they pay.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 You mentioned something about the possibility of 13 some clinical trials in August. What is the status of that?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's a clinical trial for 15 Type I diabetes research. They received the funding and 16 they're sort of getting the trial in motion, but I am their 17 primary candidate, but we haven't really had any conversations
18 beyond that at this point.

19 THE COURT: So, is it possible that that could be 20 pushed over until the end of this case if you were chosen to 21 serve?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm not certain.

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 Are you, yourself suffering from diabetes?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

Jury Selection

319

1 THE COURT: Okay. Are you okay right now?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Do we need to make any accommodations?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 Thank you.

7 MS. FARHADIAN: Your Honor, may we just add one
8 question?

9 THE COURT: Yes.

10 MS. FARHADIAN: I believe this juror has been in his 11 job for eight months.

12 Can you please inquire about what he did previously?

13 THE COURT: Were you working before your present
14 job?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

16 THE COURT: What were you doing before that?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I worked for a chapter of 18 nonprofit that does diabetes research. The same organization,
19 different job.

20 THE COURT: I see.

21 Were you doing research yourself?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

23 THE COURT: In what capacity were you working with 24 them?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I worked in fund-raising.

Jury Selection

320

1 THE COURT: In fund-raising. Okay, thank you.

2 Juror 240, good morning.

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning.

4 THE COURT: You are going have to keep your voice up
5 so we can hear you.

6 You have been working at your current job for about
7 three years, were you working before that?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I just finished school
9 before that.

10 THE COURT: You just finished school.

11 What was your major?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: English.

13 THE COURT: English.

14 Is your employer going to cover your jury service?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. Yes, she is. They 16 are.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 I am going to ask you sort of that general question.
19 Do you have any thoughts, just generally, about the criminal
20 justice system, whether it's fair or not fair, is there any 21 way that it can be improved or not.

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm pretty ambivalent about
23 the whole process, so.

24 THE COURT: What do you mean by ambivalent about the 25 whole process?

Jury Selection

321

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Nothing's perfect, so.

2 THE COURT: So, I am not sure what that means.

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't really have any
4 like, concrete opinions regarding it.

5 THE COURT: Okay, thank you.

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: May I also add, I have a
7 change to my circumstances?

8 THE COURT: Yes.

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am actively interviewing
10 right now, so that might be a hindrance to being able to serve
11 jury duty.

12 THE COURT: What do you mean by actively 13 interviewing?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm look to pursue an 15 opportunity.

16 THE COURT: Well, we don't meet on Fridays, so is it
17 possible you can just set your interviews on Fridays?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I could try, but like I
19 said, it's kind of difficult, so.

20 THE COURT: Well, but you are currently employed,
21 right?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Well, given that the fact that if 24 you were chosen to serve, then you should, in discussing this 25 with any prospective employer, you should tell them that you

Jury Selection

322

1 are currently serving on a jury and you don't meet on Fridays
2 and can they accommodate that.

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I've made comments
4 regarding that and they said we'll work around that, depending 5 on how thing go.

6 THE COURT: All right, okay. Sounds good, thank
7 you.

8 Juror Number 246, good afternoon.

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

10 THE COURT: You have a brother and an uncle and two 11 cousins who are with the NYPD.

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

13 THE COURT: Do you get to talk to them about the 14 work they do?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Briefly, but nothing in 16 detail.

17 THE COURT: Do you know whether any of them work in
18 the narcotics division?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, my one cousin.

20 THE COURT: One of your cousins does?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Do you ever talk to him or her about
23 that?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

25 THE COURT: About the work?

Jury Selection

323

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

2 THE COURT: You heard me mention that there is that
3 legal principle that the jury has to evaluate testimony of law
4 enforcement personnel the same way as any other witness, not
5 give their testimony more weight or less weight or believe
6 them more or believe them less because they are police
7 officers.

8 Would you be able to follow that instruction?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Do you have any favorite TV shows or 11 things you like to read? We asked about news, but we didn't 12 ask sort of generally.

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I watch cooking channels a
14 lot.

15 THE COURT: Cooking channels?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

17 THE COURT: Okay. You like to cook a lot?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

19 THE COURT: Yes? Any other kind of shows that you
20 like to watch, movies?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Nothing regular, no.

22 THE COURT: So, what do you do in your spare time?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sleep.

24 THE COURT: That sounds good to me.

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I work long hours, so.

Jury Selection

324

1 THE COURT: Can you tell us a little bit about what
2 you do for this merchandising retail company?

3 You're a manager. And that means you supervise
4 other people?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. There's about 20
6 managers that work in our company and we each have a section.
7 I merchandise the floor, putting out new items, stuff like
8 that.

9 THE COURT: Is your company going to be paying for 10 your jury service?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

12 THE COURT: Thank you.

13 247 is not here.

14 Juror 251, good afternoon.

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

16 THE COURT: Again, we really have tapped into the 17 military. You were in the Army 23 years, did I get that 18 right?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

20 THE COURT: Apparently, you were involved in 21 military tribunals?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was involved in military
23 courts, yes, ma'am.

24 THE COURT: Could you tell us a little bit about
25 what that involved? Hopefully, it's nothing classified.

Jury Selection

325

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Nothing classified. I
2 proffered charges and I was also serving on juries.

3 THE COURT: So you served on the military jury?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

5 THE COURT: How long ago was that?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Mid-'80s.

7 THE COURT: Without telling us what the actual
8 verdict was, did it reach a verdict, the jury?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

10 THE COURT: Did you ever serve in the capacity as a
11 military police officer?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, ma'am.

13 THE COURT: Is there anything about the experience
14 that you had with the military tribunals that you think would
15 affect your ability to be fair and impartial in this case?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It would not affect me, no,
17 ma'am.

18 THE COURT: You have a son who is in EMS in the Fire
19 Department of New York?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

21 THE COURT: Do you get to talk to him about the work
22 that he does?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Occasionally. He mainly 24 talks with his mother, not me.

25 THE COURT: Oh, okay. Do you know, in any of the

Jury Selection

326

1 discussions that you have had, either directly with him or
2 perhaps you've chatted with your wife about her conversations
3 with him, has he ever sussed whether or not he, in the course
4 of his work, has come across shooting victims or people have
5 been the victim of drug abuse or anything like that?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: All of the above.

7 THE COURT: All of them.

8 Is there anything about those conversations and what 9 he has discussed that you think might affect your ability to 10 be fair and impartial, given the charges here?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, ma'am.

12 THE COURT: You also mentioned that currently you
13 are in retail management and you also mentioned that some of 14 your work associates are either on the police force or have 15 retired from the police force. I am going to ask you the same
16 question I have asked some of your fellow jurors.

17 Would you be able to follow my instruction that the 18 testimony of any law enforcement people must be not be given
19 greater weight or less weight because they are police
20 officers? Would you be able to follow that instruction?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

22 THE COURT: You have mentioned, this is in reference
23 to question number 24, which asked whether you, a family
24 member or a close friend had ever been a witness to or a
25 victim of a crime. You mentioned that yes, for yourself.

Jury Selection

327

1 Several shoplifting cases, but I wasn't sure if you had been a
2 victim or a witness or both of those.

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Both.

4 THE COURT: So, as a victim, did you press charges?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: On behalf of my company, I
6 have, yes, ma'am.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Did you have to testify?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not in trial, only in 9 depositions.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Is that what you mean by being a
11 witness; you had to testify at those depositions?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 So, at these depositions, were you questioned by 15 attorneys?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

17 THE COURT: Was there a judge present at the 18 deposition, do you recall?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I believe there was an
20 administrative Judge, I'm not sure.

21 THE COURT: Of course, witnesses are going to come
22 to court in this case and they are going to be questioned by 23 the attorneys. The defendants don't have to do anything, if 24 they don't want to. The attorney don't have to do anything
25 because they don't have the burden of proof, but odds are they

Jury Selection

328

1 are going to want to ask questions of the witnesses.

2 Having been a witness yourself and questioned by
3 lawyers, do you think that in some way that might inject
4 itself into the way you evaluate the testimony of any witness?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't believe so, no,
6 ma'am.

7 THE COURT: You also mentioned that you might be
8 concerned about financial hardship, that this case will likely
9 take about six to seven weeks, go to mid-August. We're 10 hoping, of course, not any further.

11 Would you just elaborate on what you mean by that?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: At that time I was unsure of 13 the company policy on payment. They pay, so I'm fine.

14 THE COURT: Okay, great. Thank you.

15 Juror 252, good afternoon.

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

17 THE COURT: I gather you are retired.

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

19 THE COURT: What did you retire from?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Postal Service, 39 years.

21 THE COURT: Postal Service.

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

23 THE COURT: What were you doing for the Postal
24 Service?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Financial. Inside. Window

Jury Selection

329

1 service.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 You have served on several juries.

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

5 THE COURT: State juries. What did you think about
6 the experience?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have mixed emotions.

8 THE COURT: In what sense?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, a couple of the juries
10 I was on, unfortunately, the jurors weren't very -- I mean, it
11 didn't work out the way it should have.

12 THE COURT: Do you think that the experiences that
13 you have had in those cases would affect your ability to be a
14 fair and impartial juror in this case?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would hope not.

16 THE COURT: Well, what gives you some pause?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's, the only thing that
18 bothers me is I would have to actually see the case itself,
19 beyond the case, I mean, I'm being honest. I'm trying to be 20 as honest as I can. I would hope I would be as fair as I
21 could be. I've always felt that way, but being on juries so
22 many times, I've got some bad feelings from juries that were 23 picked, it just didn't work out the way I thought it would.

24 The jury system is fine. I'm just saying I have 25 bad, you know, experiences.

Jury Selection

330

1 THE COURT: Well, I am always hopeful, of course,
2 that any jury experience by any one of my juries would be a
3 positive one. All we can ask of jurors when they are chosen
4 to serve is that they keep an open mind throughout the trial.

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

6 THE COURT: Right? And to fairly and impartially
7 look at the evidence, figure out what the facts are and then
8 apply the law as I give it, regardless of what their position
9 about the law may be. They may not like it.

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

11 THE COURT: They may think it should be different,
12 but they have to accept it as I give it.

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

14 THE COURT: And then apply those facts to the law
15 and then, importantly, go into that jury room when it is time
16 and discuss it among yourselves.

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

18 THE COURT: If you were chosen to serve here, would 19 you be able to do that?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

21 THE COURT: It has been a while since you served on 22 a jury.

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Four years.

25 Would you be able to set aside whatever those

Jury Selection

331

1 experiences were and treat this as a brand new experience?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would try -- I'd try, yes.

3 THE COURT: Thank you.

4 MR. AMATRUDA: Your Honor, before we move on to the 5 next juror, I apologize, but Juror Number 251, the previous
6 juror, I was just wandering if Your Honor would consider
7 inquiring whether the juror's relative's legal problem,
8 whether he felt there was anything to that, the way that was
9 handled that would affect his ability.

10 THE COURT: Oh, yes, I'm sorry.

11 MR. AMATRUDA: I'm sorry about that.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Well, let me finish with Juror
13 Number 252 first and then we will go back.

14 You were the victim of a crime. You were mugged?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

16 THE COURT: How long ago was that.

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 1987 or '88.

18 THE COURT: Did you report it to the police?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Of course, yes.

20 THE COURT: Was anyone ever arrested?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not that I know of.

22 THE COURT: Was there any weapon used?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I didn't want to find out.

24 I was attacked from behind and he only wanted my money, so I
25 give him my money, he gave me my wallet back. That's what

Jury Selection

332

1 happened.

2 THE COURT: How do you feel about the way that that
3 was handled?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: By the police?

5 THE COURT: Yes.

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Very well.

7 THE COURT: Is there anything at all about that,
8 that you think would impact on your ability to be fair and
9 impartial?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, no, no.

11 THE COURT: Thank you.

12 All right so, let's go back to Juror Number 251.

13 You had two brothers -- I am assuming it is two 14 different brothers -- who had conflicts with the law, one
15 charged with embezzlement and one charged with armed robbery.

16 What happened to the brother who is charged with 17 embezzlement?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They settled out of court,
19 he paid back the money he owed and he had a record and he went 20 on with his life.

21 THE COURT: Okay. With respect to the other brother
22 who was charged with armed robbery?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He was a drunk and he got 24 what he deserved.

25 THE COURT: So, he had issues with alcohol.

Jury Selection

333

1 Is there anything about that fact and the fact that
2 this case involves drugs that would affect your ability to be
3 fair and impartial?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Alcohol is a problem in my
5 family.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's something we deal with.
8 Thankfully, I don't have it. Everyone else seems to have it.
9 I don't think it would affect me, but I can't be a hundred 10 percent sure it would not.

11 THE COURT: Well --

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do not like drugs.
13 Period.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Well, I think it might be fair to 15 say that I think most people would say that they don't like
16 murders or people getting robbed or things of that nature.
17 The question is whether, if you were chosen to serve on this 18 case, would you be able to keep an open mind and evaluate the 19 case just on the evidence presented when the time comes, as I
20 said before, given the instructions that I will give to the 21 jury and the facts as the jury finds them to be, make a
22 decision as to whether or not the Government has sustained the 23 burden of proof beyond a reasonable doubt as to the charges.

24 Would you be able to do that?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That, I can do.

Jury Selection

334

1 THE COURT: Would you be able to set aside any
2 biases or thoughts of sympathy, punishment or anything like
3 that in reasoning that decision?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I would.

5 THE COURT: Thank you.

6 Okay, we are almost near the end, the last but not
7 least. Juror 254, good afternoon, ma'am.

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

9 THE COURT: You are retired a little over three 10 years now from publishing?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

12 THE COURT: Are you not working at all now?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

14 THE COURT: Congratulations to you.

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

16 THE COURT: What did you do in connection with 17 publishing?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was an editorial
19 assistant.

20 THE COURT: You were an editorial assistant.

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: To the vice president of the 22 company.

23 THE COURT: Okay. You have a daughter, who is with 24 the FBI?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, she applied for the FBI.

Jury Selection

335

1 THE COURT: Oh, she applied with the FBI, okay.

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

3 THE COURT: Did she get the job?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

5 THE COURT: Okay. You mentioned that you served on 6 two juries.

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

8 THE COURT: It was a criminal jury and a civil jury?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Do you recall whether it was a trial
11 jury or a Grand Jury?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: On both we had a trial.

13 THE COURT: Both of them were trials?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

15 THE COURT: And they both went to verdict?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

17 THE COURT: What do you think about the experience
18 that you had sitting on a jury?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was very interesting.

20 THE COURT: Is there anything at all about that
21 experience that you think would affect your ability to be fair
22 and impartial?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

24 THE COURT: You mentioned that your daughter was 25 robbed when she was still in high school.

Jury Selection

336

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Was she injured?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

4 THE COURT: Was it reported to the police?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

6 THE COURT: Was anyone arrested in connection with
7 that?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

9 THE COURT: What do you think about the way that her
10 situation was handed?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was okay, but they didn't
12 ever find the people, but it was handled good.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 You also mentioned that there are some friends or 15 family members who have had some kind of encounter with law
16 enforcement.

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Do you know any details about that?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, not really, no.

20 THE COURT: Do you ever talk to them --

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

22 THE COURT: -- about their experience and their 23 thoughts about how they were treated?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

25 THE COURT: Is there anything about that, that you

Jury Selection

337

1 think would affect your ability to be fair and impartial?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

3 THE COURT: Is there any reason why you think that
4 you might not be able to serve on this jury?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

6 THE COURT: Thank you.

7 And finally, Juror 262, good afternoon.

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

9 THE COURT: Where did you complete your schooling;
10 in Russia or in the United States?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: In Russia.

12 THE COURT: In Russia. Before you were at your 13 present job, were you working?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

15 THE COURT: What kind of work did you do?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do the programming.

17 THE COURT: In the same field?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, same field.

19

20 (Continued on following page.)

21

22

23

24

25

1 THE COURT: Okay. There were certain questions
2 about any feelings about any organizations or laws related to
3 guns and to drugs. You mentioned that you have strong
4 feelings against the NRA and gun laws have to be more strict.

5 You also mentioned that drug laws or laws toward
6 drug related crimes should be more strict.

7 You have heard the nature of the charges here.
8 There are allegations of drug distribution and also
9 allegations of murder and murder for hire.

10 Would you be able to, if chosen to serve on this 11 case, evaluate the case just on the evidence presented and the 12 law as I give it, whether you agree with the law or not?

13 Would you be able to do that fairly and impartially?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I will do my best.

15 THE COURT: I'm sure when the lawyers hear, I will 16 do my best, they get a little bit nervous because we want to 17 obviously be sure that you will be able to do that.

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I should be able to do that.

19 THE COURT: Okay. It is sort of related to that and 20 may sound like it is a little bit repetitive, but it is 21 important.

22 If the jury comes to a decision unanimously, that
23 the government has sustained its burden of proof beyond a
24 reasonable doubt and finds the defendants guilty, any thoughts
25 about punishment are really not to concern the jury because

1 that will be up to the Court, up to me, alone.

2 Would you be able to render any verdict free from
3 any thoughts about punishment?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

5 THE COURT: Could you just say that again? I
6 couldn't hear you.

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I should be able to 8 judge objectively.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Are you certain about that?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

11 THE COURT: Okay. You had some concerns about your 12 job. You mentioned that you are very busy at the moment.

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think my company will pay.

14 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think my company will pay
16 but I am kind of in a role right now where I have to leave a
17 project which will be due October-November deadline.

18 THE COURT: When is your deadline?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: October-November.

20 THE COURT: Okay. We should be done by about the 21 second week of August.

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It is in full swing now.

23 THE COURT: I'm sorry? I am having trouble hearing
24 you. If you could speak up louder?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The project in the full

1 swing right now.

2 THE COURT: We are not going to meet on Fridays. So
3 will that help to ease that concern?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. It probably -- they
5 will hire somebody else. They will keep me because it's the 6 company policy but I don't think I will be on this project.

7 THE COURT: You think you will be kicked off the 8 particular project?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Probably.

10 THE COURT: You said the job will probably pay you
11 for your jury service?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think so.

13 THE COURT: You also raised a concern about drug
14 related crimes in your area.

15 Again, is that something that you think, given the 16 nature of the charges here, that might find its way into how 17 you make a decision in this case?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't think so.

19 The only thing I should mention, I will be out
20 July 3rd and July 7th.

21 THE COURT: You will be out when?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I will be away.

23 THE COURT: When?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: July 3rd and 7th.

25 THE COURT: July? I didn't hear the first.

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: July 3rd and 7th.

2 THE CLERK: The seventh is Monday.

3 THE COURT: What is that, a trip?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

5 THE COURT: Have you been able to follow us along,
6 all the discussions that I have had?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

9 Let me just see counsel briefly with the reporter.

10 (Side bar.)

11 THE COURT: It's 1:15 now. Do you want to take five 12 minutes to caucus and decide who you want to come back or not?
13 I can have them -- well, rather than have them leave the room,
14 if you want to just do that and I will tell them they can
15 stretch in their places.

16 MR. AMATRUDA: We will do our arguments for cause?
17 That's what you mean?

18 THE COURT: Yes. We could do this at the side bar.

19 MR. AMATRUDA: Yes.

20 MS. FARHADIAN: So the cause people can just leave.

21 THE COURT: This way we can decide whether they will 22 come back or not at 2:15.

23 MR. RUSSELL: Is the conference room open?

24 THE CLERK: I will check.

25 MR. RUSSELL: We will just go -- since it's four of 1 us.

2 THE COURT: I see. Why don't I just have them step
3 out? It will be easier. I just have a concern about your
4 clients.

5 MR. RUSSELL: Okay.

6 THE COURT: You know what I mean?

7 MR. RUSSELL: You are right.

8 THE COURT: Why don't we do that?

9 MR. RUSSELL: Right.

10 THE COURT: Let's do that.

11 (In open court.)

12 THE COURT: I know that we have gone -- normally we 13 take lunch at about 1:00 o'clock. We have gone a little bit
14 past but we are trying to move the process along so that we 15 could make a decision of who we need to come back this 16 afternoon and who can go home.

17 So I am going to give you another break for 18 15 minutes, about 15 minutes. I am going to ask you to 19 congregate outside at 1:30. This way you can stretch, go to 20 the ladies room, men's room, if you have to.

21 All right. Then this way I can conference with the 22 lawyers. I think some of you will be a little bit more
23 comfortable, able to move around a little bit. Then we will
24 let you know what's going to be what and you will have a lunch
25 break too. I know some of you may be hungry and we will see

1 you back here at 1:30.

2 Remember, you can't talk about anything among
3 yourselves or with anybody else, do any kind of research or 4 investigation concerning this case or read or listen to 5 anything concerning this case.

6 All right. Make sure you take anything that's 7 important and, again, wait outside at 1:30 and don't come in 8 until we bring you in.

9 All right. Thank you.

10 It should not be much longer.

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have a doctor's
12 appointment.

13 THE COURT: You have a doctor's appointment?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: At 3:00 o'clock.

15 THE COURT: Why didn't you tell us that? You should 16 have told us that.

17 Okay. You are going to need to go outside and wait
18 and we will bring you back in at 1:30.

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

20 (The following occurred in the absence of the 21 prospective jury panel.)

22 (Pause.)

23 THE COURT: We've got a few minutes before we have 24 to bring these folks in. I'm sure they are starving and we 25 have some diabetics.

1 Can I ask you to take your seats and speak into the 2 mike?

3 Mr. Pinkney and Mr. Taylor are here.

4 Okay. Let's take them one by one.

5 Juror number one?

6 MS. FARHADIAN: No problem.

7 THE COURT: Juror number one?

8 MR. HERMAN: No issues with number one, Judge.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Juror number one stays.

10 Juror number six?

11 MS. FARHADIAN: No problems.

12 MR. RINALDO: No problem.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Juror number 13?

14 MR. RINALDO: Judge, 13 from the defense point of 15 view, this is the self-employed, he won't get paid at all,
16 Ukrainian interior designer.

17 THE COURT: Right.

18 MR. AMATRUDA: We consent to 13.

19 THE COURT: Okay. So 13 is on consent for cause.

20 Number 18?

21 MS. FARHADIAN: No problem.

22 MR. RINALDO: No.

23 MR. RUSSELL: Nothing.

24 THE COURT: Number 21?

25 MS. FARHADIAN: No problem.

1 MR. RINALDO: Judge, I think we have her for cause.
2 It's the financial hardship. She is not -- she doesn't know
3 if she is going to get paid.

4 THE COURT: Yes. You know what, I should have -- we
5 can ask her to call her employer during the lunchtime and find
6 out. They don't have access to their phones. Her husband is 7 employed. The question is, she doesn't know whether the job
8 pays.

9 MR. RINALDO: I thought we have enough in the pool
10 anyway, Judge, but that's fine.

11 THE COURT: We are going to keep her for now and 12 have her call her employer over lunch and then let her tell us
13 before we do anything.

1 THE COURT: No. 33.

2 MS. FARHADIAN: No problem.

3 MR. HERMAN: No problem.

4 THE COURT: He stays.

5 No. 46.

6 MS. FARHADIAN: No problem.

7 MR. RINALDO: Nothing, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: No. 53.

9 MS. FARHADIAN: No problem.

10 MR. RINALDO: No problem, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: No. 54.

12 MS. FARHADIAN: No problem.

13 THE COURT: For the defense.

14 MR. RINALDO: No problem.

15 THE COURT: I need to hear you.

16 THE COURT: 507 we already excused on consent for 17 medical reasons.

18 61.

19 MS. FARHADIAN: No problem.

20 MR. RINALDO: No problem.

21 THE COURT: 77.

22 MS. FARHADIAN: No problem.

23 MR. RINALDO: No problem.

24 THE COURT: 85.

25 MS. FARHADIAN: Your Honor, this juror I think we

1 should have a conversation about it. I believe she very much
2 would like to serve. I'm worried some of those questions
3 about child care are not resolved.

4 THE COURT: She has to work.

5 MR. RUSSELL: We consent.

6 THE COURT: What?

7 MR. RUSSELL: We consent. I thought it was a
8 child-care issue, the more we got into it. I thought it was a
9 child-care issue.

10 THE COURT: All right. Consent cause, 85.

11 THE COURT: No. 94. He's the cab driver.

12 MR. AMATRUDA: Consent cause.

13 MR. RINALDO: Yes, agree.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 No. 101.

16 MS. FARHADIAN: No problem.

17 MR. RINALDO: Judge, I don't know how you feel about 18 that. That's the gentleman with the bad knees.

19 THE COURT: Now, it turns out he has a doctor's 20 appointment at 3:00 o'clock that he didn't tell us about this
21 morning.

22 MS. FARHADIAN: He's still working, and he said he 23 would get paid if he serves. I don't think jury service is 24 more taxing health-wise than what he does.

25 MR. AMATRUDA: He's also an inspector, which, as a

1 construction inspector, it would be pretty surprising if he
2 didn't have to get up and walk around.

3 THE COURT: I don't think getting up and walking
4 around is his problem.

5 MR. RUSSELL: It's sitting.

6 THE COURT: It's the sitting down that's the 7 problem. I'm going to grant the defendants' cause challenge.

8 No. 107 at the sidebar, there was a consent based --
9 for cause based on anonymity compromise.

10 MR. RINALDO: Yes, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: 119.

12 MR. AMATRUDA: Cause.

13 MR. RINALDO: Consent to cause.

14 THE COURT: Consent for cause, 119. That's the 15 person who would believe cops more.

16 121.

17 MS. FARHADIAN: No problem.

18 MR. RINALDO: No problem.

19 THE COURT: 139.

20 MS. FARHADIAN: No problem.

21 MR. RUSSELL: No issues.

22 MR. HERMAN: No problem.

23 THE COURT: 144.

24 MR. AMATRUDA: No issues.

25 MR. RINALDO: No problem, your Honor.

1 MR. RUSSELL: No issues, Judge.

2 THE COURT: 156 had a financial hardship.

3 MR. AMATRUDA: Cause.

4 MR. HERMAN: Consent, Judge.

5 THE COURT: That's 156 on consent.

6 158.

7 MR. AMATRUDA: I believe we would move for cause.

8 THE COURT: Based on?

9 MR. AMATRUDA: The standard is, they don't get paid.
10 She's not getting paid.

11 THE COURT: There's financial hardship and there's 12 financial hardship. She lives at home rent-free. The bottom
13 line is, her bills consist of maybe some credit card payments
14 and -- not even. She mentioned that she spends money on food.
15 She's going to get a $40 stipend for every day. We can have 16 the jury clerk expedite the payments, so that she'll get them
17 at the end of the week, and she can pay her bills that way.
18 She's not paying rent, she's not paying student loans. I
19 might feel differently if she was paying student loans. She 20 has no children.

21 MR. AMATRUDA: She's someone who helps her family
22 with grocery money. You're not talking about people with a
23 lot of money here. She's contributing grocery money to her
24 family while she's living at home. That sounds like the type
25 of situation where it's not --

1 THE COURT: Her father is a postal worker. Her mom
2 is a stay-at-home mom. Her brother is twenty-six years old.
3 She can go get a job at McDonald's, and she's going to get a
4 jury stipend of $40 a day, and she can go to work on Friday.
5 I do not think that this is the kind of financial hardship
6 that we're talking about, with the cab driver who does not get
7 paid at all and who has to pay rent and who has to pay
8 everything else.

9 So, no, she stays. 158 stays.

10 165.

11 MR. AMATRUDA: Cause.

12 THE COURT: I thought that might be a consent.

13 MR. RINALDO: Yes, your Honor.

14 MR. RUSSELL: Yes, your Honor, consent.

15 THE COURT: He worked at the border as a military
16 police officer. Yes.

17 MR. RINALDO: Yes, your Honor.

18 MR. AMATRUDA: Yes, your Honor.

19 MR. RUSSELL: Yes, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: I need to hear the lawyers talk, because 21 otherwise, I don't know what's going on.

22 176, I think, is okay.

23 MR. AMATRUDA: Yes.

24 MR. HERMAN: Okay with the defense.

25 MR. RUSSELL: Okay with the defense.

1 THE COURT: 177.

2 MS. FARHADIAN: Yes. That's the administrative
3 secretary for corrections.

4 MR. HERMAN: No problem.

5 MR. RUSSELL: No issues.

6 THE COURT: 178.

7 MR. RUSSELL: No issues.

8 MR. HERMAN: No issue from the defense.

9 MS. FARHADIAN: No issue.

10 THE COURT: 179.

11 MS. FARHADIAN: No issue.

12 MR. RINALDO: No issue from the defense.

13 MR. RUSSELL: No issue.

14 THE COURT: This is the person who does not get paid
15 until mid-July.

16 MS. FARHADIAN: But he said it's not a hardship.

17 THE COURT: That's right, he did thank you. So, 179
18 stays.

19 180.

20 MS. FARHADIAN: Consent.

21 MR. HERMAN: Consent.

22 THE COURT: Consent for medical issues.

23 204 was not here.

24 223.

25 MS. FARHADIAN: No problem.

1 MR. RINALDO: No problem.

2 MR. RUSSELL: No issues.

3 THE COURT: 225.

4 MS. FARHADIAN: We thought this was for cause,
5 because he seems to be the subject of a medical study.

6 THE COURT: Yes. He doesn't know when these trials
7 are supposed to start, and even in his answer, he thought they
8 were towards the end of August.

9 MS. FARHADIAN: I'm sorry. I didn't hear him say
10 end.

11 THE COURT: That was in the questionnaire, that 12 apparently none of you looked at.

13 MR. RUSSELL: No challenge for cause.

14 THE COURT: 225 stays.

15 240.

16 MS. FARHADIAN: No problem.

17 MR. RUSSELL: No issue.

18 MR. HERMAN: No problem.

19 THE COURT: 246.

20 MS. FARHADIAN: No problem.

21 MR. HERMAN: No problem.

22 MR. RUSSELL: No issue.

23 THE COURT: 247 also was not here.

24 251.

25 MR. HERMAN: We have an application for cause. This

1 individual, the more he spoke, the more it appeared that he
2 had a very harsh attitude. He said his brother got caught
3 with drugs, he got what he deserved. He said very
4 emphatically he did not like drugs. He has been a military
5 prosecutor.

6 THE COURT: He was not a prosecutor. He served on a
7 military jury. It sounds like he brought charges against 8 somebody, not as a lawyer.

9 MR. HERMAN: I think he said he procured charges. I
10 didn't quite get the terminology. This was not just being a
11 juror, it was someone who brought charges.

12 MS. FARHADIAN: I don't think you can bring charges
13 if you are not a lawyer.

14 MR. HERMAN: That's what he told us, Judge.

15 THE COURT: But that doesn't preclude him. I
16 questioned him quite a bit about the drug issue.

17 Does the government wish to be heard?

18 MS. FARHADIAN: Yes. We don't think there's a
19 reason to strike him for cause. When he said that he does not 20 like drugs, period, the Court did ask him if he could separate
21 -- put his policy opinions aside and be a fair and impartial
22 juror. He was an intelligent person. He understood what you
23 were asking him, and he said, yes, he could serve.

24 THE COURT: Challenge for cause as to 251 is denied.
25 252.

1 MS. FARHADIAN: We have no problem.

2 MR. RUSSELL: Judge, we have a for-cause.

3 THE COURT: Based on?

4 MR. RUSSELL: Your Honor, his exact statement was 5 that his jury experience, it didn't work out the way it should
6 have. Now, the Court questioned him about what he meant --
7 didn't question him directly, What did you mean, the way it
8 should have. You questioned him about trying to be fair,
9 trying to be impartial, trying to be not biased. And he 10 didn't respond with an unequivocal answer, and that is the 11 key.

12 I think there can be no equivocation whatsoever in 13 those type of answers that he's given to the Court. He 14 equivocated. He altered his answer to be a little less
15 aggressive. But nonetheless, the experience was not an 16 experience that he liked, and nonetheless, he did not shy away
17 from that he had a certain perspective that should have come
18 out of those cases and it didn't. I don't know what that was.
19 I don't know if that was a perspective that the person should 20 be innocent or guilty. He definitely had a perspective.

21 THE COURT: Does the government wish to be heard?

22 MS. FARHADIAN: We don't think he's a strike for 23 cause. The fact that he had a bad experience, and we don't 24 know why, with jury service in 1978, I don't think means that 25 he can't be a juror, again, particularly when he did say he

1 would set it aside in his exchange with the Court and he
2 understood that this is a different case.

3 MR. RINALDO: Judge, if I've got it right, he has 4 three prior jury experiences, and he's indicated that they
5 were all bad experiences. I think cocounsel is correct, it
6 sounds like a juror who didn't get his way in the verdict and 7 he's angry about it and upset about it. I agree. I think
8 it's enough for cause, based on his answers.

9 MR. RUSSELL: I don't want to make light of his 10 statement that he necessarily didn't get his way. When he 11 said it should have gone a certain way and it didn't, I think
12 those words speak volumes.

13 THE COURT: I'm going to grant the defendants'
14 challenge for cause as to 252.

15 254.

16 MS. FARHADIAN: No problem.

17 MR. RINALDO: No issues.

18 MR. RUSSELL: No issues.

19 THE COURT: Finally, 262.

20 MR. HERMAN: Now, he's going to be out on Monday, he 21 said.

22 THE COURT: Right. He has a concern about being 23 picked off a project, and he expressed strong views about guns
24 and drugs. I got a sense that he was trying to be politically
25 correct in his responses in contradiction to the strength of

1 his feelings about guns and drugs. Is that a consent for 2 cause?

3 MR. RUSSELL: Yes, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Yes. Okay. Consent cause.

5 So, it will be easier for us just to double-check
6 and go through the strikes for cause just to make sure we're 7 all on the same page.

8 So, 13, 57, 85, 94, 101, 107, 119, 156, 165, 180,
9 252 and 262?

10 MR. RINALDO: Correct.

11 THE COURT: That's everyone?

12 MR. HERMAN: That's what we have, Judge.

13 MS. FARHADIAN: Yes.

14 THE COURT: All right.

15 It's already a quarter to 2:00. I feel like given 16 that we have some diabetics we have kept on, that maybe they 17 should have a full hour for lunch, although I understand that 18 our jury clerk has all the jurors report at least an hour
19 early. I suspect the jurors we told to come at 2:15 are 20 probably there already. But I think ultimately, these people
21 have been here since 8:30 in the morning. So, I would like to 22 give them the full hour of lunch.

23 We'll have them come back at a quarter to 3:00.

24 Let's bring them in.

25 (Prospective jurors enter courtroom.)

1 THE COURT: Take the seats that you had earlier,
2 please. I promise we're only going to keep you just a few
3 more minutes longer.

4 Welcome back, ladies and gentlemen.

5 Do the parties agree that all of our prospective
6 jurors are present and properly seated?

7 MR. AMATRUDA: Yes, your Honor.

8 MR. RUSSELL: Yes, your Honor.

9 MR. RINALDO: Yes, your Honor.

10 THE COURT: So, I want you to listen very carefully.
11 Please remain in your seats until I actually dismiss everyone.
12 I want you to listen very carefully, and I am going to give 13 the numbers of those jurors who are excused from this case.
14 If you hear your number, you can go home or go to work or 15 whatever it is that you want to do. You do not have to come
16 back. That's only for the people whose numbers I'm going to 17 call.

18 So, that would be Nos. 13, 57, 85, 94, 101, 107,
19 119, 156, 165, 180, 252 and 262. You are excused from this 20 case. You can go home and do whatever you want to do.

21 The rest of you -- I asked everyone to sit, please,
22 and wait. The rest of you, you can take your lunch and come
23 back inside here at a quarter to 3:00, at 2:45. We're going
24 to pick up with the jury selection process this afternoon. I
25 know it's been a long day for you all. Some of you have been

1 here since 8:30 in the morning, and some of you I know have
2 dietary issues and so on. That's why I want to make sure that
3 you have a full lunch break.

4 Sir, you need to step out.

5 So, have your lunch. Those of you if you did not
6 hear your number, you need to come back. Remember what I
7 said, you can't discuss this case with anyone. That includes
8 the jury selection process. You can't do any kind of research
9 or any kind of investigation or look at or read any account
10 that may be reported in connection with this case or any other 11 parties connected with this case. We thank all of you for 12 your patience and for your willingness to serve and for your 13 honest answers.

14 So, if you didn't hear your number, we'll see you
15 back here at 2:45. Wait outside until we actually bring you
16 in, please.

17 (Prospective jurors leave courtroom.)

1 (CONTINUING)

2 (In open court; outside the presence of the jury.)

3 THE COURT: I am just going to keep you for two more
4 minutes.

5 That gentleman that I asked to leave is prospective
6 Juror Number 48. He is the fellow that came back yesterday
7 afternoon, after he realized that he had to come back that
8 claimed that he had some scheduling issues.

9 What is disturbing besides that, he didn't raise
10 anything after we actually spoke with him at some length
11 yesterday, is that he was told specifically to report to the 12 central jury room and he didn't do that. He came up here
13 instead, apparently, and bypassed two sets of signs that ask
14 the jurors not to come in unless they were told to come in.
15 The signs are simple and the letters are pretty big, I made
16 those signs myself.

17 So, I am just a little disturbed by that and I
18 always like to share with the parties anything that I find
19 disturbing and you make your choices, all right?

20 So, let's let these gentlemen have something to eat,
21 the marshals, too, and I will see everybody back here at 2:45.

22 MR. HERMAN: Judge, do you anticipate we're going to 23 be striking jurors this afternoon?

24 THE COURT: Yes.

25 MR. RINALDO: Thank you, Judge.

1 MR. HERMAN: Thank you.

2 MR. JASPER: Judge, before we break, I just wanted

6 MR. JASPER: Okay, thank you.

1 AFTERNOON SESSION

2 (Judge DORA L. IRIZARRY enters the courtroom.)

3 (In open court; outside the presence of the jury.)

4 THE COURT: All right, let's come to order, please.

5 Case on trial, continued. Afternoon session. All

6 the parties are present, except for the case agent. The 7 defendants are all present. The jury is not present.

8 I just wanted to let the parties know that of the 9 prospective jurors who were questioned yesterday and told to 10 return today, numbers 70 and 84 are still not here. As I
11 mentioned to you earlier, I think we were just discussing some 12 logistics off the record, the jury clerk always tells them to 13 come an hour early; so, we don't know. The jury clerk has 14 been reaching out and trying to find them.

15 We have outside the jurors from this morning and we 16 do have the jurors downstairs from yesterday afternoon. I was 17 going tell the jury clerk to bring them all up here regardless
18 of the ones who are not here.

19 Are the parties okay with that?

20 ALL: Yes.

21 THE COURT: We can start seating them and see what
22 happens in the interim. That is going to take a while anyway.

23 Is that okay with everyone?

24 ALL: Yes, Your Honor, thank you.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

Proceedings

362

1 THE COURTROOM CLERK: Judge, 70 and 84 are here.

2 THE COURT: Thank you, tell the parties.

3 (Prospective Jurors enter.)

4 THE COURT: Welcome back, ladies and gentlemen.

5 Once again, your seats are going to be changing. We
6 are going to seat you in number order beginning with the front
7 row here and we are going to fill the jury box. Then, as we
8 did yesterday and earlier this morning, we are going to start
9 filling the rows, the ones we have in the well and then moving
10 back.

11 So again, just listen very carefully for your name
12 and just be careful with the steps as you are coming in.

13 THE COURTROOM CLERK: Juror Number One, Number Four,
14 Number Six, Number Seven, Number Ten, Number 18.

15 The second row will be 21, 23, 33, 35, 36 and 39.

16 And then 41 will be in the first seat in the third
17 row, 43, 46, 48, 49 and 52.

18 The last row in the jury box starts with 53, 54, 56,
19 60, 61, and 64.

20 Is 64 here? 64, oh, okay. Do you need any help,
21 sir?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I've got it.

23 THE COURT: Watch those little steps there, please,
24 be careful.

25 THE COURTROOM CLERK: Okay. And now, in this row

Proceedings

363

1 we'll do 70, 77 and 84.

2 And then over here 90, 100 and 105.

3 And now the second row 121, 128, 136, 139, 144, and 4 158.

5 And now in this row starting with the aisle 176,
6 177, 178, 179, 223 and 225.

7 And then I guess we'll -- should we use this back
8 row, Judge?

9 THE COURT: Yes.

10 THE COURTROOM CLERK: Okay, 240, 246, 251 and 254.

11 Thank you.

12 THE COURT: Actually, in that other row, who do we 13 have in the back there? So, 240 and 246, if you can move
14 closer to the edge, we can see you a little bit better that 15 way. Perfect, thank you.

16 So, what we are going to do next is have the 17 opportunity for the parties to see all of you together and I
18 am going to give them some time to consider their decisions as 19 to who will stay and who will go. Before they start that 20 process, I am going to ask to see the attorneys please, on the 21 side with the reporter.

Proceedings

364

1 THE COURT: Juror number four, if you will recall,
2 she was the lady whose husband was getting daily radiation
3 treatment.

4 MR. RUSSELL: Yes.

5 THE COURT: She mentioned to my deputy that her
6 availability has changed since yesterday. So that's one
7 issue. I thought maybe we could bring her up privately before
8 you all start making your decisions and find out what that is.

9 I am really hoping that her husband has not taken
10 some turn for the worse; but that seemed to be the only thing
11 that might impact her availability.

12 There is still the issue of juror number 48, who had 13 those scheduling issues that came up suddenly yesterday and 14 who showed up here and disregarded the signs and entered the 15 courtroom. If you wanted to follow up with that as well?

16 I would like to know personally why numbers 70 and 17 84 were so woefully late.

18 THE CLERK: They went to the ceremonial courtroom by 19 mistake. Nobody was there.

20 THE COURT: All right. So we can excuse that. They
21 will have more explicit instructions anyway moving forward.

22 I think those were the only issues.

23 THE LAW CLERK: Just the woman who wasn't sure about 24 her employment paying. She didn't ask.

25 THE COURT: What number?

Proceedings

365

1 MR. RINALDO: 21.

2 THE COURT: Did you want to bring her up too and
3 find out?

4 MR. RUSSELL: I would want to know. If she has a
5 financial hardship, we need to recognize that.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Let's start then number four.
7 (Open court.)

8 THE COURT: Juror number four, can you come up,
9 please?

10 (Juror joins side bar.)

11 THE COURT: I understand that something has happened
12 with respect to your availability.

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, two things.

14 I got an email from my sister that she and her
15 husband are coming to visit for a week in the middle of July,
16 from Las Vegas, where they live.

17 And the second thing is, my husband met with the 18 radiology doctor yesterday and he told him that he shouldn't 19 be fooled, that he feels so well now, because the treatment is 20 cumulative and it's low dose radiation but it is cumulative
21 and I really feel I have to be available.

22 THE COURT: Okay. We understand.

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

24 THE COURT: We understand.

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thanks very much.

Proceedings

366

1 THE COURT: Have a seat.

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay. Thank you.

3 (Juror leaves side bar.)

4 THE COURT: Shall we let her go?

5 MR. HERMAN: Yes.

6 MR. AMATRUDA: Yes.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 (Open court.)

9 THE COURT: Juror number 48.

10 (Juror joins side bar.)

11 THE COURT: If you could step up and around this 12 way, please?

13 Thank you.

14 You had some issues apparently you wanted to raise
15 yesterday after we were done.

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

17 THE COURT: What's the story?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have to bring up that 19 July 8, 14 and 15, I have to go on vacation. So prior to 20 coming here June 9th I --

21 THE COURT: June when?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: June 8, 14 and 15.

23 THE COURT: July 8th?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: July 8, 14 and 15, I have 25 put for vacation because July 8th is my daughter's birthday

Proceedings

367

1 and 14th and 15th I was having family. So I don't know if
2 that is something that could be worked on.

3 THE COURT: That's all three days of trial. Why
4 didn't you tell us this yesterday? We were talking about
5 scheduling and specifically we were talking about scheduling
6 with you.

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

8 THE COURT: Why didn't you raise it yesterday?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, it was not on the 10 questionnaire. I didn't put --

11 THE COURT: No. Yesterday we were discussing with 12 you scheduling.

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Because when you asked me
14 the questions and you moved on very quickly. I did intend to 15 bring it up to you but it skipped my mind at that moment.

16 THE COURT: I also told you yesterday that this was 17 the time for everyone to raise any issues.

18 So your daughter's birthday is July 8th?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

20 THE COURT: What are you doing on July 8th for your 21 daughter?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am just having something
23 at home. And if -- if it's more the 14th and 15th.

24 THE COURT: What is the 14th and the 15th?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have family in town. I

Proceedings

368

1 have local plans. Nothing really, you know, I -- going
2 anywhere else. It is family coming from out of town. That's
3 the only problem. This is the only three days I had to go off
4 in July.

5 August, the conference --

6 THE COURT: You can spend time with your family when
7 you go home in the evening.

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's a possibility. I
9 will not be able to join them during the daytime. That's --

10 THE COURT: This is part of your civic duty and this
11 is part of your responsibility --

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I understand that.

13 THE COURT: -- it is to do that.

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was a concern. I just 15 wanted to bring it up to you.

16 THE COURT: You didn't note it on the questionnaire
17 so I am thinking that perhaps this is something that you
18 decided on later.

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. Actually, I did not 20 decide later. I don't remember why I did not put it on the 21 questionnaire. I actually had one of my staff member take a
22 picture of my vacation request and send it to me on the phone.
23 I don't have it with me, obviously. As proof, it is there.
24 It was put in May.

25 THE COURT: Is there any other reason why you could

Proceedings

369

1 not serve here at this point?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The only other reason I can
3 think is that it takes me almost two hours to get here.

4 THE COURT: That's not an excuse. Other jurors --

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's fine.

6 THE COURT: -- travel just as long, if not longer,
7 to get here.

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No problem.

9 THE COURT: So do some of the attorneys. That's not 10 an excuse.

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No problem. If I have to be 12 here, I have to be here.

13 THE COURT: Any questions?

14 MS. FARHADIAN: No, thank you.

15 MR. RINALDO: No.

16 THE COURT: Go back to your seat, please.

17 (Juror leaves side bar.)

18 THE COURT: Can you pull his questionnaire for me,
19 48?

20 I have to say, I am not overly sympathetic. I am
21 really not sympathetic.

22 He told us he might not be available the week of the 23 13th. I just wanted to see what the reason was.

24 (Pause.)

25 He didn't give a reason, which is part of the reason

Proceedings

370

1 why we brought him in. Then he also claimed he had problems
2 sitting for a long period of time.

3 MR. RINALDO: I was tempted to say, Judge, in his --
4 no. All right.

5 THE COURT: Whatever. I am happy to hear anything
6 you have to say, really.

7 MR. RUSSELL: Another juror is supposed to check
8 with their employer.

9 MS. FARHADIAN: She is coming up.

10 THE COURT: I called them out of order.

11 Anyway, what do you all think, my feelings aside?

12 MR. JASPER: I totally understand where you are 13 coming from. The only problem is that when you have somebody
14 who is coming up with all of these late in the day excuses, he 15 really doesn't want to serve, it just makes me nervous in 16 terms of having him sit. I hate to reward that kind of 17 behavior, but it does trouble me, that he's going to these 18 lengths to try and wiggle out.

19 THE COURT: He can travel two hours a day every day
20 and come and sit for jury service down in the jury clerk's 21 office.

22 MR. RUSSELL: That would be fine by us.

23 THE COURT: Until Monday.

24 MR. RUSSELL: As long as he is not sitting here.

25 MS. FARHADIAN: Respectfully --

Proceedings

371

1 THE COURT: I have done this with other jurors in
2 the past.

3 MS. FARHADIAN: I think that's a good second choice.
4 But we -- I think he can serve. Some people are more
5 outspoken than others about their resentment. But I think we
6 have to just evaluate the claims he's making on their face.
7 It is his daughter's birthday. He can serve on his daughter's
8 birthday. Those other two days he can spend time with his
9 family.

10 In the end, for everything that he has said, he
11 started today by saying that conference in August is not
12 happening. So it's now just about those three days, which I
13 think in the world of hardships that these other people are 14 going to endure are actually not that serious and don't rise
15 to the level of a cause strike.

16 THE COURT: I understand defense counsels' concern
17 in the case. Every criminal case is important, obviously, but 18 in a criminal case like this, where the stakes are really much
19 more exceptionally high than the average case, if we can put 20 it in a perspective of sorts, I think that is troubling.

21 I am troubled by the fact that he couldn't follow
22 simple instructions of not coming into the courtroom despite
23 the fact that there were signs and there were warnings and I
24 gave warnings yesterday after the issue with juror number 20,
25 I think it was, and I gave them explicit instructions. That's

Proceedings

372

1 a concern, an ability to follow simple instructions, and then
2 coming up with excuses and not serving is disturbing.

3 By the same token, in terms of impressing upon him
4 the importance of not shirking his responsibility and maybe
5 he'll think about it twice, then it's a very simple thing for 6 me to have the jury clerk make him come in at least until the 7 end of this week.

8 MS. FARHADIAN: May I ask your indulgence just to 9 speak with Mr. Amatruda for one moment before we close this 10 conversation?

11 THE COURT: Absolutely. Go right ahead.

12 (Pause.)

13 MS. FARHADIAN: Your Honor, I just want to raise an 14 issue. Now that number four has left, if number 21 also 15 cannot sit and number 48 is excused, I don't believe we will 16 have enough jurors.

17 THE COURT: I think we will have just the 43.

18 THE LAW CLERK: Right now we have 46. If those 19 three are gone, that's --

20 THE COURT: Then you have 43.

21 THE LAW CLERK: That's enough. Then we can't strike
22 anymore.

23 THE COURT: The bottom line is, we have more jurors
24 that are coming back, that can come back tomorrow.

25 MR. RUSSELL: I am not condoning what 48 has said

Proceedings

373

1 but I think it would be easier for him to come up here and say
2 the conference I spoke about the other week, I am actually on
3 that conference. The fact that he said I am not on that 4 conference here is my concern, shows some veracity. It may be
5 misplaced. It may be untimely and it may actually be that he
6 forgot and all those things rack up to a person maybe we don't 7 want to sit because he can't follow instructions. He comes in 8 and says in August, the conference I am not going to the 9 conference, but here are my issues.

10 I think the Court should take that into 11 consideration.

12 MR. RINALDO: Judge, I have to say something. I
13 want to speak in his defense. I think he said that he had 14 those three days booked and they were booked in his --
15 whatever they are locked in at. He neglected to put them on 16 the -- in the questionnaire.

17 If you take him at his word, had he remembered as 18 booked vacation, it probably just wouldn't even come up. So
19 if you take him at his word that he had that booked and just 20 neglected to put it down and then it came to him yesterday
21 when he was -- I don't know. Cut him some slack on that.

22 THE COURT: All right. We will excuse him for 23 cause, number 48, on the defense.

24 MS. FARHADIAN: 48?

25 MR. RUSSELL: 48.

Proceedings

374

1 THE COURT: Let's go now 21, very quickly.

2 (In open court.)

3 THE COURT: Number 21.

4 (Juror joins side bar.)

5 THE COURT: Did you call your employer to find out
6 whether he pays for jury duty?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I didn't call.

8 THE COURT: Why not?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Because first time I came
10 here first, I had the paper that I am on the jury duty.
11 Because my supervisor told me with the paper they pay you.

12 THE COURT: So he said he has to pay you?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, first he told me. I
14 don't know if continued they will pay me or not. That I don't 15 know. I am not sure about that.

16 THE COURT: No. She said that if you bring the 17 paper showing that you are doing jury duty, they have to pay
18 you?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The first day they told me.

22 THE COURT: But you didn't call her to find out?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Today, I didn't call.

24 THE COURT: Even though you had to come back here
25 today?

Proceedings

375

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Because I called last night
2 that I be here today and left the message to my supervisor.
3 Jury duty called me again and I am not at work today. Last
4 night I called them.

5 THE COURT: But you didn't call them this morning to 6 find out if you got paid?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

8 THE COURT: It didn't concern you?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They told me that they will
10 pay me first day. When I was here first day, they told me.

11 THE COURT: Okay. The question is, are they going
12 to pay you for every day that you sit on the jury?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That I am not sure.

14 THE COURT: You didn't ask them?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I didn't ask them.

16 THE COURT: Why not?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Because I was not selected.

18 THE COURT: Doesn't that bother you?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, but I didn't ask them
20 now when I was in lunch break.

21 THE COURT: You didn't think that when we told you
22 you had to come back, that there is a possibility that you may 23 be picked to serve here and sit here until the middle of 24 August and that was not important?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That is important.

Proceedings

376

1 I think they will pay me. If they don't pay they
2 will have to tell me that and send me the fact that you are on
3 jury duty, they call you for jury duty. I sent fax to them
4 first day.

5 THE COURT: Understand if you are picked to serve on 6 this jury, I am not going to excuse you later on if it turns
7 out that they are not paying you.

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am not sure. I would go
9 out and call them and come back again. I am not sure.

10 THE COURT: All right. Why don't you have a seat?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay. Thank you very much.
12 (Juror leaves side bar.)

13 THE COURT: Counsel?

14 I need to tell the jury clerk if we need to bring in 15 any of the other jurors like within the next ten minutes.

16 MR. HERMAN: It strikes me, there is a certain kind
17 of low wage worker, they don't want to tell their employer I
18 might not be showing up. They kind of like don't. They kind
19 of ignore it.

20 THE COURT: Can I have her questionnaire, number 21?

21 MS. FARHADIAN: Your Honor, can we give her access
22 to a phone?

23 THE CLERK: I was going to suggest that. We can 24 bring her to the robing room and have her call.

25 THE COURT: We can do that.

Proceedings

377

1 We also need to let the jury clerk know if we have
2 to bring in anybody else.

3 Why don't we do that?

4 THE CLERK: Bring her to the robing room?

5 THE COURT: Yes.

6 Do you have the key?

7 THE CLERK: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 MS. FARHADIAN: Does she work for a government
10 agency?

11 THE COURT: Hold on a second.

12 MS. FARHADIAN: I don't think it was so clear from 13 the questionnaire.

14 THE LAW CLERK: An HIV AIDS caseworker.

15 MS. FARHADIAN: She moved to a different agency.
16 Let me look at my notes too.

17 THE COURT: She is a home health aide.

18 MS. FARHADIAN: I think in --

19 THE COURT: Not all home health aids get paid if 20 they don't show up.

21 MR. RUSSELL: If they don't show up, they don't get 22 paid.

23 MR. RINALDO: If we lose her --

24 THE COURT: If we lose her we are still okay.

25 MR. RINALDO: If we lose her, is there anybody else?

Proceedings

378

1 MR. RUSSELL: No.

2 MR. RINALDO: We are still okay then?

3 THE COURT: Right. We have 43.

4 The question is, do we want to have the jury clerk
5 bring in any more jurors tomorrow?

6 MR. RINALDO: No.

7 MS. FARHADIAN: Not if we have enough to do our 8 peremptories today.

9 THE COURT: If we let these three go, we have 43.
10 That's it, basic.

11 MS. FARHADIAN: Okay. I think our preference is not 12 to let her go unless we get an answer.

13 THE COURT: All right. We are wasting time. Let's
14 have her call her employer.

15 THE CLERK: Okay. Do you want to call her up?

16 THE COURT: We are going to give her access to my 17 robing room.

18 MR. RINALDO: Let's say she makes her phone call and 19 lose her here. We can't lose anybody else. Nobody else
20 raised anything. That's it.

21 THE COURT: Right.

22 MR. RINALDO: We are okay.

23 MS. FARHADIAN: We will just do it -- do our strikes
24 now.

25 MR. RINALDO: I will do whatever you want me to do.

Proceedings

379

1 THE COURT: My only concern is making sure that we
2 don't lose any more jurors or the opportunity of bringing any
3 more jurors in for tomorrow. We do need to let the jury clerk
4 know now in another five minutes.

5 MR. JASPER: Let's play it safe and just have
6 them -- I understand your concern. We can just play it safe
7 and have them --

8 THE COURT: We could also do that. We can always 9 bring them in tomorrow morning and then just excuse them.

10 MR. RUSSELL: Right.

11 MS. FARHADIAN: They will be happy to be excused.

12 MR. RINALDO: We won't be here but they can be 13 excused.

14 THE COURT: Right.

15 MR. RUSSELL: That too, I guess.

16 MR. RINALDO: Yes. If we get the jury, we are 17 trying to avoid coming back again tomorrow. We should finish
18 today. If we finish today.

19 THE COURT: It's more than that. It's how many 20 jurors would be coming back?

21 THE LAW CLERK: 40.

22 THE COURT: Forty, 40 times $40 a day. That's 23 $1,600 out of the jury budget that just barely got authorized.

24 MR. RINALDO: I think we are okay.

25 MR. AMATRUDA: Isn't the risk whether between when

Proceedings

380

1 we exercise our strikes and then -- and between now and when
2 we exercise our strikes if we lose somebody? That's the risk,
3 right? Once we exercise our strikes, then we have the jury.
4 They are gone.

5 THE COURT: They are gone.

6 MR. AMATRUDA: We can't --

7 MR. RINALDO: We can't lose anybody else. Nobody
8 else is on the list.

9 MR. AMATRUDA: We are talking about half an hour,
10 when somebody might --

2 MR. AMATRUDA: All I was going to say, that the only
3 risk we're running by not calling jurors back is, we're going
4 to lose somebody between now and the next half hour when we
5 exercise our strikes, because once we exercise our strikes,
6 your Honor is going to let them go, anyway, so we're done for 7 the day. That's really the only risk there.

8 I don't see that window as being that much of a
9 risk, given the extensive voir dire your Honor has conducted
10 so far and how thorough we have been. Rather than spending
11 the expense of bringing in more jurors, we should just do our 12 strikes, and we'll have our jury.

13 Can I just excuse myself?

14 THE COURT: Sure.

15 THE CLERK: She doesn't have her phone number at 16 all. She was in the robing room for quite a while and thought
17 she had it in her bag, but she doesn't.

18 MR. RINALDO: Just let her sit there.

19 THE COURT: You want to consent to let her go?

20 MS. FARHADIAN: I'm sorry. I don't. They are 21 saying let her sit. Maybe we have an agreement.

22 THE COURT: I agree. I don't get that. How do you
23 not know your job phone number?

24 MS. FARHADIAN: It seems we're more worried about it
25 than she is.

1 THE COURT: I'm going to let 48 go now, and Four go
2 now.

3 My courtroom deputy makes a good point. Let's let
4 them sit here instead of doing it piecemeal, so other people
5 don't start getting ideas.

6 MS. FARHADIAN: So we just know for ourselves.

7 THE COURT: After spending time in the robing room,
8 she says she doesn't have the number to her employer.
9 Everybody sort of agrees to let her stay?

10 MR. AMATRUDA: Okay.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 (In open court.)

13 THE COURT: Ten minutes.

14 MR. HERMAN: Yes, your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Let me know when you are ready.

16 (Pause.)

17 MR. AMATRUDA: May we come up, your Honor?

18 THE COURT: Yes.

19 (Sidebar.)

20 THE COURT: Counsel, as you recall, I gave each side
21 an extra peremptory, one for each defendant, one for the 22 government. Those have been tacked on for round seven.

23 At this point, I leave it to my trusted deputy.

24 THE CLERK: Usually, six rounds, but in this case,
25 there are seven. Usually, how we proceed, in round one, the

1 government goes first with one pick, the defense goes with 2 two.

3 Round two starts the defense, two picks, the
4 government one.

5 Round three starts with the government, one pick,
6 the defense has two.

7 Round four starts with the defense, two challenges,
8 government one.

9 Round five starts with the government, one
10 challenge, the defense jointly has one.

11 Round six, defense starts with one challenge and the 12 government has one.

13 And then in round seven, the government starts with 14 one and the defense has one.

15 MR. RUSSELL: Round one, again, is what?

16 THE CLERK: The government starts with one challenge
17 and then the defendants have two.

18 MR. RUSSELL: Round two, you reverse it?

19 THE CLERK: It's always reversed. Whoever picks
20 last picks first in the next round. The defense challenges,
21 as I stated, are joint defense challenges.

22 MS. FARHADIAN: That only gives them eleven. Should 23 they have twelve?

24 THE CLERK: I'm sorry. Then, I misunderstood so I
25 apologize.

1 Adding an extra defense challenge to round five or
2 any of the next rounds.

3 MR. RUSSELL: It makes sense to do it at five rather 4 than seven.

5 THE CLERK: Okay. My apologies.

6 So, round one, the government.

7 MS. FARHADIAN: We challenge No. 23.

8 THE CLERK: Defense, you're first.

9 MR. RINALDO: Jurors No. One and No. Six.

10 THE CLERK: Round two, the defense. You have two 11 challenges.

12 MR. RINALDO: No. 18 and No. 33.

13 THE CLERK: The government.

14 MS. FARHADIAN: No. 49.

15 THE CLERK: You go again, round three.

16 MS. FARHADIAN: We challenge No. 52.

17 THE CLERK: Defendants, two challenges.

18 MR. RINALDO: Jurors No. 46 and No. 56.

19 THE CLERK: You start round four with two 20 challenges. Defense, jointly.

21 MR. RINALDO: 21 and 60.

22 THE CLERK: The government.

23 MS. FARHADIAN: We're in round four?

24 THE CLERK: Yes.

25 MS. FARHADIAN: We strike No. 105.

1 THE CLERK: Round five, you go again.

2 MS. FARHADIAN: No. 43.

3 THE CLERK: We're still in round five. The 4 defendants have two challenges.

5 MR. RINALDO: 61 and 90.

6 THE CLERK: You start round six with one challenge.

7 MR. RINALDO: 100.

8 THE CLERK: The government.

9 MS. FARHADIAN: This is round six, we challenge
10 No. 77.

11 THE CLERK: One more.

12 MS. FARHADIAN: Round seven, we do No. 70.

13 MR. RUSSELL: One moment.

14 THE CLERK: The defense has one challenge.

15 MR. RINALDO: 178.

16 MS. FARHADIAN: That's from the alternates pool.

17 THE CLERK: I'm sorry.

18 MS. FARHADIAN: I think you want to strike from the 19 jury pool.

20 THE CLERK: My apologies.

21 MR. RUSSELL: One moment, your Honor.

22 (Pause.)

23 MR. RINALDO: We're ready.

24 THE COURT: Round seven for the defense.

25 MR. RINALDO: 84.

1 THE CLERK: Okay.

2 Alternate rounds, the defense starts. The defense
3 has one pick. Round one alternate.

4 MR. RINALDO: 178.

5 MS. FARHADIAN: We strike 144.

6 THE CLERK: Now, your second one.

7 MS. FARHADIAN: We strike 158.

8 MR. RINALDO: 251.

9 THE CLERK: 251.

10 Now, you have your last.

11 MR. RUSSELL: One moment, your Honor.

12 (Pause.)

13 MR. RINALDO: We're ready, Judge.

14 246.

15 THE CLERK: 246.

16 And the government is last.

17 MS. FARHADIAN: We strike 179.

18 (Pause.)

1 (CONTINUING)

2 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, you cannot just
3 walk out of here unless I know that you are walking out. I
4 just saw somebody walk out. That is just going to delay us.

5 (Side-bar conference held on the record out of the 6 hearing of the jury.)

7

8 (Side-bar.)

9 THE COURT: We just want to make sure that we are 10 all on the same page as to the jurors who are staying, okay?

11 ALL: Yes.

12 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: Juror Number One is 7.

13 Number two is 10.

14 Number three is 35.

15 Number four is 36.

16 Number five is 39.

17 Number six is 41.

18 Number seven is 53.

19 Number eight is 54.

20 Number nine is 64.

21 Ten is 121.

22 11 is 128.

23 12 is 136.

24 Alternate one is 139.

25 Alternate two, 176.

Proceedings

1 Alternate three, 177.

2 Alternate four, 223.

3 Alternate five, 225.

4 Alternate six, 240.

5 ALL: Yes.

6 THE COURT: We agree.

7 So now, we've got that juror who just walked out.

8 What we are going to do is I will have my deputy call out of 9 numbers of the jurors who are going to stay and then everybody
10 else can go.

11 ALL: Okay.

12 THE COURT: Then we can give them follow-up
13 instructions once everybody is gone.

14 ALL: Thank you.

15 (Side-bar end.)

16

17 (In open court.)

18 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen, I want
19 you to listen very carefully.

20 My deputy is going to call out the numbers of the 21 jurors who have been selected to serve on this jury. If your 22 number is called, please remain seated, all right? I am going
23 to ask everyone to remain seated until we finish calling the 24 numbers of all of the jurors who are going to remain on this 25 case. If your number is called, once we get done, please

Proceedings

389

1 remain seated. If your number is not called, you are being
2 excused from this case, you do not have to come back tomorrow,
3 okay?

4 All right, so be careful and listen to numbers as 5 they are being called by my deputy.

6 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: Number 7, will be Juror
7 Number One.

8 Number 10 will be Juror Number Two.

9 Number 35 will be Juror Number Three.

10 Number 36 will be Juror Number Four.

11 Number 39 will be Juror Number Five.

12 Number 41 will be Juror Number Six.

13 Number 53 will be Juror Number Seven.

14 Number 54 will be Juror Number Eight.

15 Number 64 will be Juror Number Nine.

16 Number 121 will be Juror Number Ten.

17 Number 128 will be Juror Number 11.

18 Number 136 will be Juror Number 12.

19 Number 139 will be Alternate Juror Number One.

20 Number 176 will be Alternate Juror Number Two.

21 Number 177 will be Alternate Juror Number Three.

22 Number 223 will be Alternate Juror Number Four.

23 Number 225 will be Alternate Juror Number Five.

24 Number 240 will be Alternate Juror Number Six.

25 THE COURT: So again, if your number has been

Proceedings

390

1 called, please remain seated. The rest of you, if your number
2 was not called, you are excused. You may go home or go to
3 work or do whatever it is that you want to do and you have the
4 thanks of the Court, you have the thanks of all of the parties
5 for all of your time and consideration.

6 Make sure that you take all of your belongings with 7 you when you leave.

8 Thank you, you can leave the Court now. If your 9 number was called, please remain seated.

10 (Prospective jurors excused.)

11 THE COURT: My deputy is going to call your number
12 and is going to instruct you as to where to sit. The seating
13 is going to change now and again, we are all going to refer to 14 you by a number so now you're getting a brand new number,
15 okay? It goes according to the seat number and it will be in 16 the jury box. We are going to get rid of this row in the 17 front. For now, you can stay there until we actually seat
18 everybody in their proper seats.

19 (Jurors seated.)

20 THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen, these 21 are going to be the seats, your seats, for the duration of the 22 trial, okay? Your seat number will be your juror
23 number except for our alternates. So, it will be alternate 24 one, alternate two, alternate three, alternate four, five, and 25 six. For now, you do not have to come back tomorrow, tomorrow

Proceedings

391

1 is Wednesday?

2 THE JURY: Yes.

3 THE COURT: And Thursday. You do not have to come
4 back here tomorrow or on Thursday and of course, as I told
5 you, we will not be sitting on Fridays.

6 So, we are expecting to start with some preliminary
7 instructions from me on Monday morning. We are asking you to 8 come back here at 9:30 in the morning and you are going to get 9 instructions as to where to report and all of those things in 10 just a few minutes, we are going to take you to the back, to 11 the jury room, and you will see where the jury room is and you
12 will get further instructions as to where to report and so on,
13 on Monday morning.

14 It is very, very important that you be on time and 15 that you take into account traffic, this is New York. You
16 know if you're going on public transportation, it happens. It
17 happens to me, too, I ride the trains just like everybody
18 else, okay. So, do take that into account because if even one 19 of you is missing, that's it, we can't go forward until we 20 have that juror here.

21 I ride the lawyers pretty hard and they know that 22 they have to be here on time and they are going to do their 23 best to make sure that the trial flows in an orderly way.
24 Sometimes there may be some waiting on your part; trust that 25 we are working to try to streamline things to make sure once

Proceedings

392

1 you are here your time is used to maximum efficiency. We
2 recognize what a big sacrifice it is for all of you, your
3 families and your employers.

4 So again, it is very important that you not discuss
5 anything at all about this case thus far, keep in mind you
6 haven't heard any evidence at all, you haven't heard any 7 instructions from me, you haven't been told by me that you can
8 talk about the case. This includes the jury selection process
9 and you are not to discuss anything with anybody close to you,
10 anyone at all, not your friends, families, no one.

11 Do not do any research or read about or do any kind
12 of investigation about anything connected with this case or 13 any of the parties connected with this case or even anything
14 such as the subject of criminal trials generally, all right?

15 Again, keep in mind that I have told the parties not 16 to have any kind of contact with you. There is the reverse
17 side of that coin and I am going ask you to do the same.

18 Please, have a very safe 4th of July. We want all
19 of you back here safe and sound on Monday at which time we are 20 expecting to begin, as I said, with some preliminary
21 instructions that I am going to give to you about trials
22 generally and about evidence generally to kind of help you
23 follow the trial along.

24 You will hear opening statements, the defendants may 25 open if they wish, they don't have to. If they don't, I will

Proceedings

393

1 instruct about that as well, and then we will begin with the
2 taking of evidence.

3 So for those of you, and I don't remember now off
4 top of my head because we saw people in different groups, you
5 know if you are diabetic, if you have any kind of health
6 issues, if you have any medications you are supposed to take
7 during the day or you need to bring snacks with you, you will
8 see in the jury room that we have a refrigerator, we can 9 refrigerate that or you can store it there. If you have your 10 favorite kind of tea you want to bring you can make tea and 11 have that there as we well. We try to supply coffee and 12 things like that for you.

13 We provide water for you and I don't mind if you
14 bring bottles of water into the jury room. To keep things
15 clean we try to limit it to water. If you want to bring 16 snacks, those of you especially who have dietary needs, bring
17 them. We are going to take breaks during the day, as I said
18 before.

19 So, have a very safe and enjoyable 4th of July
20 holiday and we'll see you Monday at 9:30.

21 Thank you.

22 THE JURY: Thank you.

23 (Jury exits.)

25 (In open court; outside the presence of the jury.)

Proceedings

394

1 THE COURT: Thank you everybody, you can have a
2 seat. The jury is no longer present.

3 Is there anything last-minute that the parties want
4 to address before we resume again on Monday?

5 MR. RUSSELL: Yes, Your Honor; as to the jurors no,
6 but I'm just trying to get some guidance as to one issue.

7 The Government has submitted to us their rendition
8 of the tape in reference to what they perceive the tape
9 actually says. We, prior to this, submitted sentences or 10 phrases that we thought we heard that were different. We 11 submitted that to the Government.

12 THE COURT: You are talking about the MDC tape?

13 MR. RUSSELL: Right.

14 The Government, I guess, re-listened to the tape,
15 there were plenty of areas that they agreed with, but there
16 were several areas that they disagreed with and we just need
17 some, I guess, some education from the Court as to how the 18 Court wants to proceed.

19 We know the tape is the best evidence in and of 20 itself. We know the jurors are going to read along with the 21 transcript, but along with the he edits as far as what we 22 think was said or how does the Court want to go about that?

23 THE COURT: In the first place, once again, here we 24 are at the 11th hour. I thought I made it clear very early 25 on, months ago, that if there were any issues about tapes and

Proceedings

395

1 transcripts, that that had to be resolved early and here we
2 are having selected the jury -- they haven't been sworn yet,
3 they will be sworn on Monday -- and we're dealing with these
4 kinds of 11th hour issues.

5 These should have been finalized and done a long
6 time ago and if there were issues, we had pre-trial
7 conferences, we had plenty of conferences before this today
8 that I could have addressed this, instead of at 4:30 in the 9 afternoon after we finished jury selection.

10 MR. RUSSELL: As to those edits, Your Honor, we 11 received the Government's errata sheet, if I can call it that,
12 either late Friday or Saturday.

13 THE COURT: I don't really care whose fault it is.
14 I really don't. And the Government has had this tape for a
15 long time.

16 During motion practice it was pretty darn clear that 17 this was an important tape. It was discussed in the motion
18 practice, so I don't understand why this transcript and these 19 tapes have not been turned over months ago and why this wasn't
20 cleared up months ago.

21 MR. RUSSELL: The only reason I bring it up is if we 22 thought that we heard something different, we would submit it,
23 and then it's submitted until we hear otherwise. Otherwise,
24 there is no issue at hand.

25 THE COURT: So now in the next two days, instead of

Proceedings

396

1 my doing the other things that I thought that I was going to
2 be doing in connection with other matters that I have to
3 attend to that apparently these lawyers here do not give a
4 darn about, I have to sit there and listen to the tape and
5 listen to the difference and look at the different versus
6 versions of the transcript and make a determination.

7 How long is this conversation?

1 MR. AMATRUDA: Your Honor, I think, if -- I am
2 pretty sure that we -- that we -- the disagreements are as
3 to -- I think it's really just a couple of words, honestly.
4 Unless I am mistaken. I think it's maybe two or three lines
5 on the tape, where there is a specific word here or there that 6 we disagree with.

7 That said, our -- our -- respectfully, our position
8 on this is that the transcript isn't going in as evidence.
9 The tape is the evidence. The defense can --

10 THE COURT: The tape has to be accurate if you are 11 going to use it as an aid.

12 MR. AMATRUDA: Your Honor --

13 THE COURT: The transcripts are provided to the jury
14 to be an aid to help them follow along the tape. That's 15 normally how it is done. An instruction will be given to the 16 jury admonishing them that the transcript is not evidence,
17 that the evidence is the tape.

18 Notwithstanding that though the transcript has to be 19 accurate.

20 MR. HERMAN: Judge, the -- the tape is over two 21 hours. The transcript is about 120 pages. There is 22 substantial agreement and we are not certainly asking Your 23 Honor to listen to two hours. There are probably three or 24 four minutes where it's a couple of words that are disputed.
25 We have tried. We have gone back and forth and the government

1 has agreed with probably 95 percent of what we say we hear.

2 But there are some words that there is a
3 disagreement about. So either we can provide the jury with a
4 transcript which has -- in certain sections different
5 versions, just a couple of words different. That would be one
6 possibility.

7 I am frankly not even sure if Your Honor listened to 8 it ten times whether Your Honor could determine -- the tape is 9 faint. Sometimes people use jargon. They talk over each
10 other. It is a body wire.

11 I don't think the defense and the government could 12 actually agree on what -- on very specific sections what is 13 being said. That's the dilemma that we are in, Judge.

14 MR. RINALDO: Judge, just to put a fine point on it.
15 There is a 118 page transcript and the notes that we made are 16 contained on about seven or eight pages. In that seven or 17 eight pages of our notes as to where we agree and disagree, I
18 think there are only 20 specific instances of a disagreement
19 as to a word or two.

20 So we are talking about over 118 pages, 20 examples
21 of a word or two on a page or over a number of pages.

22 So it's not a -- I don't know how to say it. It
23 wouldn't be a tremendous undertaking to have a transcript --
24 that was I think what Mr. Russell was going at. How we are 25 going to have one transcript or one transcript that has one

1 possible setting and the other words --

2 THE COURT: How in the world is a juror supposed to
3 sit there with two different transcripts and listen to a tape?

4 MR. RINALDO: No. I guess what I am saying, to be
5 one transcript and in those particular spots there would be a
6 notation of some kind. I am only trying to come up with a way
7 that we could resolve this issue without having to -- I mean,
8 Mr. Herman is right. We cannot guarantee that anyone can sit
9 down and listen and come up exactly. There is going to be 10 unintelligible and there is going to be disputes over a couple
11 of words. We are just trying to figure out a way how to deal
12 with that.

13 MR. AMATRUDA: Your Honor, maybe I could --

14 THE COURT: I would like to know for the life of me,
15 Mr. Amatruda, why it is that this is coming up now. It's bad
16 enough that you dump a motion in limine last week at the 17 eleventh hour. But why this is being dumped now and not
18 having been done previously? Give me one reason. Because I
19 sure as hell did not hear a reason why we got this last minute
20 motion in limine last week.

21 MR. AMATRUDA: Your Honor, we were -- we had some 22 proposed revisions. Some of the things we ran by the witness
23 who was present in the case. In other instances, we were --

24 THE COURT: You knew about this tape -- first of 25 all, when it was made, when it was made. That was in the

1 hands of the government.

2 You knew that this was an important piece of
3 evidence when the motion practice was made and the motion to
4 suppress this tape was made, months ago.

5 In order for the parties to know what they were 6 talking about in the motions, this had to be -- to have been
7 known months ago. The motion could have been made months ago
8 when I set a date for oral argument or hearing on the motions
9 that I set aside time for this case, a whole day for this
10 case, that we could have had a hearing on this issue.

11 Why was this not done months ago?

12 MR. AMATRUDA: Well, Your Honor, we -- we proposed
13 the tape. The defense proposed some changes.

14 THE COURT: When did you propose the transcripts?

15 MR. AMATRUDA: Well, Your Honor, the -- I don't 16 remember the date we proposed the transcripts. I know that we 17 did receive the comments from the defendants, either at the 18 end of May or beginning of June, and during that time
19 that's --

20 THE COURT: You know what, the motions were done
21 months before that, months before that.

22 MR. AMATRUDA: But this isn't a motion. This wasn't
23 a motion.

24 THE COURT: No. But I told you that if there were 25 going to be transcripts and there were going to be issues

1 about the transcripts and any audibility issues about any
2 tapes, that that had to be addressed long before we actually
3 got started with the trial. The trial is underway, as far as 4 I am concerned.

5 You all have to come here at 9:30 tomorrow morning,
6 bring the tape, bring the copies of the transcripts, the two
7 sets of, or I don't know how many sets of proposed
8 transcripts -- does the defense have one joint --

9 MR. RINALDO: Yes, Judge.

10 THE COURT: -- transcript?

11 MR. RINALDO: Yes. We don't have the transcript,
12 Judge. We have our suggestions as to the changes in the 13 original drafts that we were given by the government.

14 THE COURT: What I mean is, are the changes jointly 15 proposed by the defendants?

16 MR. RINALDO: Yes.

17 MR. RUSSELL: There is one transcript that has the 18 changes that the government assented to. In that transcript
19 it has the section that says where they disagree. Like line
20 18 of page 121, it will say in the paragraph we disagree. So
21 that's what the transcript looks like.

22 THE COURT: We disagree and it says what? This is 23 what it says?

24 MR. RUSSELL: It says, what is purportedly the 25 original transcription and then next to it it says, we

1 disagree.

2 THE COURT: And what do you say it says?

3 MR. RUSSELL: Well, I mean, for our side of the 4 errata sheet, we have one disagreement in reference to all of 5 the changes.

6 THE COURT: It is a very -- you people just love to 7 complicate things. It's a very simple question. The 8 government has the transcript. It says, I went to the store
9 on Monday. It then says, the defense says, I disagree. Then
10 does it say, I went to the store on Tuesday?

11 MR. RUSSELL: Your Honor, the disagreement is 12 between the word full and the word for, and then on one
13 iteration is, they thought that the transcription is 14 unintelligible and we have it down, looking for luck.

15 THE COURT: All right. Tomorrow you will have -- I
16 want a set of -- a copy of the transcript sent to my chambers
17 tonight. Tomorrow morning you will all be here at 9:30 in the 18 morning. Be prepared to play the tape and we will play those 19 portions that are in disagreement. Make sure you cue up the 20 tape to where there is disagreement.

21 I really hope there are no more surprises.

22 MR. AMATRUDA: Judge, there is another issue that I
23 need to raise. That has to do with -- we were informed by the 24 defense that they -- that they want us to play the entire --
25 they want the entire tape admitted into evidence. We had

1 proposed some redactions to the tape based on anticipated
2 legal objections to admissibility of certain things.

3 For example, on the tape, Mr. Pinkney says -- on the 4 tape Mr. Pinkney says that he killed someone on Staten Island.
5 He says that he's a Crips member. He says that he committed
6 several robberies. He also discusses the shooting that he was 7 a victim of by Shaun Taylor when Shaun Taylor shot him.

8 We just wanted to make it clear in open court that 9 obviously in our view there are certain -- that that's a big 10 decision, that both Mr. Pinkney and Mr. Taylor need to make
11 and that they have -- you know, if we had tried to play it,
12 they would have had a right to challenge certain things under 13 Rule 404(b) of the Federal Rules of Evidence, under certain
14 parts of the hearsay rules, and so I just want it to be clear
15 that this is what these defendants want to happen.

16 THE COURT: So that I understand this, the 17 defendants jointly want to play the entire tape?

18 MR. RINALDO: Judge, that's -- from the defendant
19 Taylor's point of view, Judge, that's what we decided to 20 request.

21 We made a motion for severance based on certain
22 legal factors. That motion was denied. Since we do not have 23 a severance at this point, we would like the entire tape to be 24 played. I'm certainly -- if there were any objections, any 25 legal objection we had, we could raise that but we -- in lieu

1 of raising any objection to some language that might be
2 inadmissible or that we could ask to have stricken, we are not
3 seeking that. We think it's in the interests of our client
4 that the whole tape, that the tape be played in its entirety
5 for the jury to hear.

6 THE COURT: Again, didn't the defense seek this
7 remedy earlier?

8 MR. RINALDO: Well, Judge, we discussed it with the 9 government. Before we ever got to discussing it with the 10 government, we did want to consult with cocounsel and our 11 client and arrive --

12 THE COURT: This tape has been around for so long,
13 for crying out loud.

14 MR. RINALDO: We got a --

15 THE COURT: All of you, I don't understand this.

16 MR. RINALDO: Judge, we got a transcript of the tape
17 on -- the first time we saw a draft transcript was April 24th.
18 So that's -- that's the timeframe we are starting from.
19 April -- we had a tape that we could listen to and a lot of 20 unintelligible.

21 THE COURT: That's still two months from April.

22 MR. RINALDO: What we did, Judge, during that period
23 of time, we looked at the transcript. We discussed it with 24 cocounsel.

25 THE COURT: Motions were already decided by April.

1 I don't understand why any of this, including the making of
2 the transcript, which is on the government's fault, okay, why
3 that was not done way in advance of April.

4 Taylor wants the whole thing played.

5 What is the position of Pinkney?

6 MR. RUSSELL: Your Honor, as to -- obviously as to 7 the uncharged crime that is -- that is elicited in the tape,
8 obviously we are against that. We object to that. As far as 9 our motion papers, either prior to the tape or having the 10 tape, our objections are clear as to certain conduct for which 11 Pinkney is not being charged for.

12 That is our position.

13 THE COURT: So --

14 MR. RUSSELL: And I know it's not to the Court's 15 liking in that we haven't come up with an ultimate decision or 16 remedy to present to the Court but we have been working with 17 the government in that vein just like with the edits as far as 18 what the transcript purports to or what the tape purports to 19 actually say in trying to resolve it.

20 MR. AMATRUDA: Your Honor, it seems that I -- we had 21 a different understanding of what Mr. Pinkney was asking for 22 when he told us about playing the whole tape. I think that 23 what would probably make sense at this point is if we are 24 going to be back here tomorrow for us to talk.

25 Again, our redactions left out most of these or all

1 of these uncharged crimes. So it seems like maybe what we
2 need to do is reclarify with defense counsel what exactly it
3 is they want us to move into evidence.

4 I don't think that, with respect to the issue of 5 playing the whole tape, I don't know that Mr. Taylor, those
6 crimes that -- they don't really have to do with him. So I am
7 not sure that that's really an issue with us -- with respect
8 to him of us taking out that stuff.

9 THE COURT: I would like a point of clarification.
10 What is in the transcript? Is it a transcript of the entire 11 tape?

12 MR. AMATRUDA: It's the entire conversation.

13 THE COURT: The entire conversation unredacted?

14 MR. AMATRUDA: Yes, Your Honor.

15 And there were -- what we had submitted to you and 16 to the defense was with highlighting what it is that we were 17 proposing to redact on the tape.

1 THE COURT: What do you mean what you submitted to
2 me? And it's highlighted what you want to redact?

3 MR. AMATRUDA: That's right, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: What was sent to me in chambers, is that
5 the most updated version of the transcript after the back and 6 forth?

7 MR. AMATRUDA: No, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: It's not. Okay. So you know what, it's 9 bad enough that you all are making me drop everything else
10 that I have to do to deal with this last minute request yet
11 again. I'm not going to spin my wheels going over a
12 transcript that the parties have already agreed is not 13 accurate. By no later than 6:00 o'clock today I want to have 14 a copy of an updated transcript. I want a copy of the tape.
15 Is it on some CD form I guess?

16 MR. AMATRUDA: Your Honor has that.

17 THE COURT: Okay. And I want to make sure that the 18 portions that the government wants to highlight are 19 highlighted. I need a hard copy of that. You'll have to post
20 it, docket whatever it is that I get. I need to make sure
21 that whatever I have is highlighted.

22 MR. AMATRUDA: Highlighting you mean what we're 23 proposing to redact is highlighted?

24 THE COURT: Correct.

25 And I also am going to need some sort of a cover

1 letter that tells me what are the sections that the parties
2 are in disagreement about that will need to be resolved
3 tomorrow.

4 MR. AMATRUDA: Okay.

5 THE COURT: In which case be here at 10:00 o'clock,
6 because I'm going to need time to look at this.

7 Is there anything else? All right. I'll see you at 8 10:00 o'clock.

9 MR. HERMAN: Judge.

10 THE COURT: What is it?

11 MR. HERMAN: Mr. Taylor's family visits are on 12 Wednesday. If he's here tomorrow, he can't have his family
13 visit. He may wish to waive his presence, with the Court's 14 permission. And before he left, I wanted to put that on the 15 record. If your Honor permits him to waive tomorrow and the 16 lawyers will be here and resolve the issues, then he can have
17 his family visit. I don't want him just not showing up
18 tomorrow and there's some question as to why Mr. Taylor is not
19 here.

20 THE COURT: Mr. Taylor, that's a decision that's up
21 to you. This is an important decision that the Court has to 22 make. You have a right to be here. Then, again, it is a
23 purely legal decision that's going to be made. The discussion
24 that we're going to have is purely legal. If, after you have 25 a discussion with your attorney, you feel that you want to

1 have your family visit tomorrow and not be here, I'm not going
2 to hold that against you, and if you agree to waive your right
3 to be present, then that's fine with me as long as you
4 understand that you have an absolute right to be present for 5 the proceedings for tomorrow. I'm hoping to address all of 6 this tomorrow and not put it off, because this is important.

7 So, if you want to talk about it with your attorneys
8 a little bit more before you decide.

9 MR. HERMAN: Thank you, your Honor.

10 (Pause.)

11 MR. HERMAN: Mr. Taylor, you want to waive your 12 appearance tomorrow and stay at the jail where you can have 13 your family visit?

14 DEFENDANT TAYLOR: Yes.

15 THE COURT: You understand perfectly that you have a
16 right to be here?

17 DEFENDANT TAYLOR: Perfectly understand.

18 THE COURT: You have a question?

19 MR. RUSSELL: No. Mr. Pinkney will be here.

20 THE COURT: All right.

22 10:00 a.m.)
